6. Type of case involved:

Top Hoodlum - Anti-Racketeering

7. Connection or status of subject in the case:

HUMPHREYS is a top hoodlum of the Chicago Division and under intensive investigation.

8. Specific information being sought:

Hoodlum connections with political leaders and activities being carried on by local hoodlums.

9. Reasons for believing the specific information will be obtained by the technical surveillance:

A live informant has advised that the office space set forth above is to be used as a new meeting place for Chicago Top Hoodlums and politicians.

10. Importance of case and subject:

Same as 7.

11. Possibilities of obtaining desired information by other means (Explain in detail): HUMPHREYS is an extremely elusive and security conscious individual and leaves almost no possibilities for live informant coverage, although constant efforts are being made to develop same. Because of these security measures used by HUMPHREYS and other Chicago Top Hoodlums, it is felt that this location offers excellent possibilities unavailable elsewhere.
12. Risks of detection involved:
With proper security precautions arranged, ample security can be afforded.
13. Probable length of technical surveillance:
Indefinite.
14. Request made for technical surveillance by any outside agency
(name specific official, title and agency):
None.

15. Remarks:

16. Recommendation of Assistant Director:

CG 92-348

██████████ advised that during the first week of November he learned that HUMPHREYS had made an appointment with his associates ██████████ and FRANK FERRARO, but apparently was unable to keep this appointment due to an illness. It is noted that ██████████

██████████ has identified ██████████ and FERRARO as being extremely close associates of HUMPHREYS due to the fact that they are also leaders of organized criminals in Chicago.

FRANK FERRARO

ILL

Reference is made to the information set out immediately above in this caption under the subcaption ██████████, concerning the cancelled appointment of HUMPHREYS with ██████████ and FERRARO during the first week of November, 1962.

██████████ ILL
As has been previously reported, information has been developed indicating that HUMPHREYS and his wife are friends of ██████████ who now reside in ██████████ but who are formerly from Chicago. It is noted that through interviews of ██████████ and through other sources, it has been learned that this association between the HUMPHREYS and the ██████████ developed through the friendship of the women, which commenced prior to the marriage of MURRAY and JEANNE HUMPHREYS.

██████████ advised that from information which recently became available to him, he understands that MURRAY HUMPHREYS loaned a substantial sum of money to ██████████ several years ago. This informant confirmed information previously developed that ██████████ are very close friends and stated that he is aware of the fact that the ██████████ visited the HUMPHREYS at the Key Biscayne residence in the past.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS

Reporter NORMAN GLUBOK prepared a series of six articles which appeared in the "Chicago's American" commencing on November 11, 1962. These were all front page stories dealing with the "Captains of Chicago's Underworld". In the first article written by GLUBOK entitled "Captains of Corruptions, the following information appeared concerning MURRAY HUMPHREYS:

"In 1931, a year before Capone went to prison, there was speculation about who would succeed him as gang chief.

"Murray Humphreys is said to be in full charge of all the hard liquor business on the south side of Chicago," wrote one newspaper reporter.

"The (federal) agents say they learned something of his importance in the gang by listening to his voice over the tapped wires when he gave commands to lieutenants."

"That was more than 30 years ago. But then, as now, Murray Humphreys was one of the men who rule Chicago crime."

On November 12, 1962, GLUBOK wrote an article entitled "Captains of Corruption - Murray Humphreys - Government Agents Would Walk Miles to Get 'The Camel'". This article is quoted below in its entirety:

"Very slowly and almost painfully the old man shuffled along the dim corridor of the Federal building in search of the grand jury room, pausing every few steps to lean on his cane and regain his strength.

CG 92-348

"He was dressed in a rumpled old raincoat and a gray Homburg that had seen better days. Over his left eye he wore a black patch. A pitiful sight.

"Veteran court employes and newspaper men were moved as they contrasted this shell of a man with the Murray Humphreys they once had known, a vigorous and handsome man whose custom-tailored suits were always immaculate.

"The bystanders didn't know it, that April day in 1959, but they were wasting their sympathy.

"Murray Humphreys - known to newspaper readers as 'The Camel' and to his gangster friends as 'Curley' - was engaging in a deliberate bit of play acting.

"He was trying to perpetuate a myth that he himself had created, that he was a tired and sickly old man who had long since retired from the rackets and who wanted nothing more from life than to live out his few remaining days on earth in peace and solitude.

"'I came in this morning from Arizona,' the onetime pal of the late Al Capone told reporters as he posed for photographers. 'All I want to do is go back there.

"'I haven't enough life left in me to do anything.'

"Then Humphreys disappeared into the grand jury room, stayed only five minutes as he ducked behind the 5th Amendment, and limped out of the building.

"But Murray Humphreys, the man who 30 years ago succeeded Al Capone as Chicago's Public Enemy Number One when 'Scarface' went to prison, is far from retired.

"He is not poor or sickly, either.

CG 92-348

"At 63, Humphreys, the acknowledged brains of Capone's hoodlum empire, is still the crime syndicate's chief adviser and master fixer.

"He reports an annual income of more than $100,000 mostly labeled 'miscellaneous' in his tax return but actually his cut of Chicago gambling profits and other hoodlum ventures.

"He has a $250,000 mansion at 210 Harbor dr., Key Biscayne, Fla., where he poses as 'Mr. Lewis Hart', a retired oil man.

"There around the backyard kidney-shaped swimming pool, 'Hart' plays the part of a gracious host, serving tall drinks and chatting amiably about deep-sea fishing.

"When solicitors for local charities come to the door, Humphreys responds in the manner of a man of affluence with generous contributions.

"Until last summer Humphreys also had an elegant $325 a month apartment on the 10th floor at 4200 Marine dr., overlooking Lincoln Park and Lake Michigan.

"There Humphreys and his second wife, Betty Jeanne, a good looking blonde 34 year old ex-dice girl, were known to neighbors as 'Mr. and Mrs. Louis Humphrey,' a couple that kept to themselves.

"Since his crime syndicate duties do not require regular hours, Humphreys has plenty of time to spend with his cronies.

"Many mornings he can be seen having breakfast at the restaurant in the St. Clair hotel. Occasionally he is joined by two friends of many years.

"After breakfast he may stroll along Michigan avenue, pausing now and again to peer into display windows or to browse in a book store or antique shop.

"In his dark suit and silver-rimmed spectacles, Humphreys often travels unrecognized - except for a few old-time policemen who occasionally stop to chat and who address him as 'Mr. Humphreys', a mark of their respect.

"At lunch Humphreys is most likely to turn up at the Imperial House, Fritzel's or some other fine restaurant, often in the company of two syndicate pals, Gus (Slim) Alex and Frank (Strongy) Furraro.

"After lunch Humphreys is likely to return to his hotel and nap until early evening when he goes out to dinner, occasionally at the Pump room.

"For dinner companions, Humphreys usually chooses some of his old friends in the business or labor world. One of his closest friends owns a trucking company, another owns a large south side laundry, and a third is a well-known restaurant owner.

"After a leisurely dinner and a few drinks, Humphreys normally returns to his hotel, almost always before midnight.

"But Humphreys doesn't get $100,00 a year from the crime syndicate for doing nothing. As the master-fixer he must travel to Miami, Las Vegas, Hot Springs, New York.

"At times he goes to Washington, where he has been conferring with a Chicago congressman, reports Richard Ogilvie, sheriff-elect of Cook County and former Special Assistant United States Attorney General.

"Humphreys seems to be the ambassador of the Chicago syndicate,' says Ogilvie, who has conducted several grand jury investigations of organized crime. 'Whenever Chicago gangsters have a problem, Humphreys is the one who is called upon to handle it. He is the real brains of the outfit.'

CG 92-348

"At times Humphreys' travels don't take him as far as Washington or New York or Las Vegas.

"In 1958 he went no farther than the Armory Lounge in suburban Forest Park, where, according to testimony in federal court, he successfully pressured an official of Premium Beer Sales, Inc., to put Humphreys' pal Tony Accardo on the payroll as a salesman for $65,000 a year.

"On Dec. 1, 1958, Humphreys was observed lunching with hoodlum pals Sam (Mooney) Giancana and Gus Alex and a west side alderman in an expensive Loop restaurant.

"When it came time to leave, police were told, all left separately by way of the rear exit.

"Just last spring Humphreys is reported to have directed strategy in the Peoria whisky hijacking trial of James (Monk) Allegritti and four other syndicate hoodlums.

"Last March 7 on the eve of the trial Humphreys was observed engaged in hushed conversation with Allegritti and nother side syndicate boss Ross Prio in the since shuttered Mike Fish restaurant at 101 E. Ontario St.

"Allegritti and three of the defendants were convicted and sentences to 7 years each in prison.

"The fifth defendant, Joseph (Ruffy Liscandrello, complained of chest pains the third day of the trial, entered a Chicago hospital and was dropped from the case.

"Humphreys is credited with rescuing Liscandrello from prosecution, perhaps for old times' sake.

"Humphreys could recall that he was manacled wrist-to-wrist with Liscandrello 28 years ago when both were being shipped from Chicago to Leavenworth prison - Humphreys to begin an 18 month term for income tax evasion, Liscandrello to start serving 12 years for counterfeiting.

"Interviewed by newspaper men that October day in 1934 as he was about to board the train to begin the only prison term he has yet served, Humphreys was asked how he planned to spend his time in Leavenworth.

"While I'm down there,' Capone's successor replied, 'I intend to study English and maybe a little geometry.'

"There is no evidence that Humphreys ever studied mathematics, but his ability to use the English language effectively makes him unique in the 'dese, dem and doze' world of syndicate racketeering.

"Over the decades Humphreys has built up a huge number of contacts in the world of politics, business, and labor.

"In underworld parlance, Humphreys is the man who can 'reach out for' a judge, or a police official, or a labor leader, or an industrialist, or even a congressman.

"Said one policeman who has known Humphreys for years:

"He's good-looking, articulate, well dressed, and well mannered. In fact he looks completely out of place among his fellow hoodlums.

"He can sit down and discuss the Cuban situation like he was a member of the state department. He can discuss law with a judge, or labor relations with a corporation president.

"Thru the years he has gained the confidence of a lot of top people.'

CG 92-348

"Because he can do things for the syndicate that no one else can do, Humphreys takes orders from no one.

"His share of syndicate profits comes not from a specific territory but from the money 'skimmed off the top' in Chicago and Las Vegas gambling establishments.

"Because of his distinguished appearance and polished manner, a story has long circulated that Humphreys is the black sheep son of a prominent north shore family, educated in private schools and a far-off university.

"Actually he was born in a modest neighborhood on the near south side, attended Haven elementary school but didn't finish, and acquired a police record for burglary and robbery before he was 17.

"In 1929 he was arrested for taking $66,000 in cash, furs, and jewels at gunpoint from an Astor street physician and his wife.

"The same year he was captured in a gun battle with police as he emerged from the north side home of a union leader who had just been tied up and robbed.

"On election night, Nov. 4, 1930, police burst in on a victory celebration at the campaign headquarters of the newly elected state representative, Roland V. Libonati, at 901 S. Halsted St., in a search for Al (Scarface) Capone.

"Capone wasn't there. But the police found 10 pistols atop a piano, and took all 20 men present to the detective bureau for questioning.

"More than a dozen Capone lieutenants, including Humphreys, Paul (The Waiter) Ricca, and Ralph Pierce were locked up and charged with vagrancy. Libonati, who is now a congressman from a west side district, was released without charge.

CG 92-348

"In 1931 Humphreys collected a $50,000 ransom for kidnaping Robert G. Fitchie, 65, president of the milk wagon drivers' union.

"It was failure to pay the income tax on the ransom that sent Humphreys to prison for income tax evasion on a guilty plea.

"When Capone went to prison in 1932, Humphreys inherited leadership of the entire crime syndicate.

"Newspapers of the day referred to him as 'Chairman of Crime, Inc.' and 'Public Enemy Number One', a title he relinquished a year or so later to bank robber John Dillinger.

"With the end of prohibition, the crime syndicate branched into the protection racket and labor terror.

"By 1933 the Chicago mob headed by Humphreys and Frank (The Enforcer) Nitti was extorting 1 million dollars a year from the coal industry alone including a 50 cents a day kickback from the $3.50 a day depression wage paid coal hikers.

"Humphreys organized various associations to 'protect' owners of laundries, dry cleaners, and taverns, from the bombings, beatings, and acid-throwing non-joiners were receiving.

"In the late 1930's Humphreys masterminded and arranged the multimillion dollar extortion of the motion picture industry that sent four of his associates to prison including Paul (The Waiter) Ricca, Louis (Little New York) Campagna, Charles (Cherry Nose) Gioe, and Frank Maritote.

"As usual, Humphreys escaped the 10 year prison terms meted out to the others.

CG 92-348

"While extortion from industry is not out of fashion, Humphreys continues to exert influence in labor unions.

"In recent years his brother Jack has been on the payroll as a motion picture projectionist, altho fellow employes say he is seldom on the job. When a detective team went to a Loop theater one afternoon a year or so ago to check on Jack Humphreys' employment, they couldn't find him at his post in the projection booth.

"(The investigators decided to settle down and see part of the picture, 'Al Capone', a biography of the gang boss. When the house lights went on, the detectives were surprised to see that the man who had been sitting in front of them was Capone's old bodyguard, Tony Accardo.)

"Until recently Humphreys' wife Betty Jeanne was on the payroll of Teamster Local 710, the union headed by John T. (Sandy) O'Brien, who also provided the character references Humphreys needed to rent his Marine Drive apartment.

"By remaining behind the scenes in recent years, Humphreys has managed to escape the frequent arrests that he experienced in earlier days.

"But he may again be destined for prosecution.

"The internal revenue service is checking his income tax returns, trying to figure how a man who listed a net worth of only $8,175 in 1952 income tax settlement could have acquired the cash to buy that waterfront mansion in Florida."

(b)(2)(b)(7)(D)

██████████ advised that the above articles written by NORMAN GLUBOK caused a great disturbance among the individuals who were the subjects of his articles. This informant advised that this disturbance was caused not because of the fact that GLUBOK wrote particularly about the hoodlums involved, but because in the series he identified numerous politicians and public officials as being associates of HUMPHREYS, Et al. Among the individuals in this category which caused this concern were United States Congressman ROLAND V. LIBONATI, identified about as an associate of HUMPHREYS, and Alderman JOHN D'ARCO and FRANK CHESROW, President of the Metropolitan Sanitary District of Greater Chicago. [REDACTED] advised that the hoodlums are concerned that GLUBOK's articles and others similar to it, particularly those written by Chicago Tribune reporter SANDY SMITH, would cause legitimate businessmen, labor leaders and public officials to cease their association with the hoodlums.

CG 92-348

BY THE INVESTIGATION OF THE BUREAU AND INTERNAL REVENUE AND AT HIS ADVANCED AGE HAS DECIDED TO DISASSOCIATE HIMSELF FROM CONSTANT HOODLUM ACTIVITIES.

THE ABOVE INFORMATION IS IN CONSONANCE WITH INFORMATION RECEIVED FROM [REDACTED] APPROXIMATELY TWO YEARS AGO WHEN HUMPHREYS MADE THE COMMENT, "I AM RETIRING FROM THE UNDERWORLD." AT THE TIME IT WAS FELT THAT HE WAS POSSIBLY SPEAKING IN JEST BUT RECENT DEVELOPMENTS INDICATE THIS MAY NOT BE SO. THIS INFORMATION IS ALSO CONSISTENT WITH THE INFORMATION RECENTLY SUPPLIED BY HUMPHREYS ASSOCIATE, MORRIE NORMAN, [REDACTED]

 (b)(7)(D)

[REDACTED] ALL THIS WOULD EXPLAIN THE PAUCITY OF INFORMATION BEING OBTAINED CONCERNING HUMPHREYS FROM THE CHICAGO SOURCES AND INFORMANTS. HUMPHREYS REMAINS IN THE CHICAGO AREA WITHOUT ANY KNOWN TRAVEL AND WAS SEEN IN CHICAGO BY A SOURCE ON FEBRUARY 11 LAST; HOWEVER, IT APPEARS THAT HE IS NOT MEETING WITH HIS ASSOCIATES.

CHICAGO WILL CONTINUE TO BE ALERT FOR FURTHER INDICATIONS THAT HUMPHREYS HAS DECREASED HIS ACTIVITIES.

DEFERRED 2-16-63 9-23 AM [REDACTED]
 TO DIRECTOR
 FROM SAC CHICAGO 160955

MURRAY L. HUMPHREYS, AKA; AR. DAILY SUMMARY.
 [REDACTED] ADVISED THAT ON LAST MONDAY FEBRUARY 11,
 HUMPHREYS MET AT THE PALMER HOUSE HOTEL IN CHICAGO, APPARENTLY IN ONE OF THE RESTAURANTS THERE, WITH HIS ASSOCIATES [REDACTED] FRANK FERRARO AND RALPH PIERCE, ALSO PRESENT WAS THEIR ERRAND BOY HY GODFREY AND BY A COINCIDENCE, [REDACTED]. ACCORDING TO THIS INFORMATION
 FERRARO HAD JUST RETURNED THAT DAY FROM A LENGTHY ABSENCE AND WAS MEETING WITH HIS ASSOCIATES FOR THE FIRST TIME.

THIS WOULD INDICATE THAT HUMPHREYS HAS NOT ENTIRELY CEASED HIS ASSOCIATION AND ACTIVITIES IN ORGANIZED CRIME IN CHICAGO.

machinations of the First Ward politicians and the hoodlums and their efforts will continue to be controlled by the hoodlums and such will be driven underground in the event the source is exposed or compromised. The Chicago Division is cognizant of desirability of embarrassing the First Ward empire as well as frustrating their efforts in their subservience to the hoodlums; however, it is believed that in this instance the degree of value to be obtained in the exposure of [REDACTED] is not commensurate with the potential danger to the source. (b)(7)(c)

Assuming that exposure of [REDACTED] would eliminate him as a potential candidate for Alderman of the First Ward undoubtedly there are countless additional names that can be added to the list to take his place much as [REDACTED] is taking the place originally designated for [REDACTED]. It necessarily follows that the exposure of [REDACTED] would no more correct this situation than did the exposure of [REDACTED] eliminate the hoodlum domination. ↓

This situation will be closely followed and in the event information is directed to the attention of the Chicago Division upon which [REDACTED] can be exposed without jeopardizing this source the Bureau will be immediately contacted and proper recommendations submitted.

In the event proper dissemination of the material may be made under suitable cover that will guarantee the safety or minimize the exposure of this source, it is felt that the greatest degree of embarrassment will result with exposure if a definite commitment has been made to the effect that [REDACTED] has resigned and [REDACTED] has been named as his replacement.

Title: MURRAY L. HUMPHREYS

Character: ANTI-RACKETEERING

(F)(7)(C)(D)

Synopsis:

[REDACTED]

Information received from reliable and knowledgeable informant indicating that HUMPHREYS communicated his desire to decrease his hoodlum activities to his associates when Government investigations commenced, in order to preclude possibility of Federal prosecution. Indications are that at that time HUMPHREYS felt he was at a stage in his life where his desire for additional income from organized crime was not commensurate with the pressure Federal investigations were imposing on him. Informant has no information, however, that HUMPHREYS completely severed his association with his fellow hoodlum leaders, or entirely ceased his hoodlum activities. HUMPHREYS continues to meet with [REDACTED], FRANK FERRARO,

(b)(7)(C): (D)

and RALPH PIERCE [REDACTED]

Approximately two years ago, HUMPHREYS suggested that organization be formed by American-Italians in Chicago in order to combat "harrassment" of American-Italians by suing newspapers for libel and law enforcement agencies for false arrest. Organizational activities now proceeding along those lines, with name for this organization tentatively designated as "American-Italian Welfare League." Whereabouts of [REDACTED] unknown. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] MURRAY HUMPHREYS' recent meetings at Pete Fish's Restaurant, St. Clair Hotel, and Palmer House Hotel, set forth.

II. CRIMINAL ACTIVITIES OF MURRAY HUMPHREYS

██████████ is a reliable and knowledgeable informant. Information furnished by this informant has proved to be very accurate in the recent past. (b)(2)

In the middle of February 1962, this informant furnished information indicating that he has received information which causes him to believe that sometime ago, when the Federal Government investigations of MURRAY HUMPHREYS commenced on an intensified basis, exact time not known to the informant, HUMPHREYS communicated to his hoodlum associates his desire to decrease his hoodlum activities. It is the understanding of the informant that at that time, HUMPHREYS decided that he was in a stage of his life where his desire for additional income from organized crime was not commensurate with the pressure that the Federal investigations would put on him, and in order to preclude any possibility of Federal prosecutions against him or against his personal associates, such as his wife, he desired to conduct himself in such a manner so as to keep himself from the attention of Federal investigators.

In regard to this information, however, ██████████ indicated that he does not believe that HUMPHREYS has completely severed his association with his fellow hoodlum leaders, or that he has entirely ceased his hoodlum activities. (b)(2)

██████████ also indicated that he is not aware of the response of HUMPHREYS' close associates, SAM GIACANA, ██████████, and FRANK FERRARO, in particular, to his request and does not know that HUMPHREYS has actually ceased his activities or the number of meetings with his associates in organized crime. As a matter of fact, this informant has been in a position to furnish information in the recent past indicating that HUMPHREYS continues to meet with some of his hoodlum associates at least occasionally. It is noted that information is reported hereinafter from this same informant that HUMPHREYS met with ██████████, FERRARO, RALPH PIERCE, HY GODFREY and ██████████ in the Palmer House Hotel on February 11, 1963. (b)(2) (b)(7)(C)

III. ASSOCIATES

(b)(7)(C); (D)

[redacted] advised that he is aware of the fact that during the mid-morning hours and early afternoon hours of February 11, 1963, MURRAY HUMPHREYS met with [redacted], FRANK FERRARO, RALPH PIERCE, and HY GODFREY in a restaurant in the lower arcade of the Palmer House Hotel. Informant advised that while the meeting was in progress, RALPH PIERCE observed [redacted]

██████████, in the barbershop in the lower arcade of the Palmer House Hotel. As a result, HY GODFREY was dispatched to the barbershop, where he requested ██████████ to join the above group.

No information was obtained from [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] concerning the nature of the discussions which took place between HUMPHREYS and his associates as described above.

III
As has previously been reported, information has been received from [REDACTED] that when [REDACTED] was initially made [REDACTED] in the early 1950's, he was done so through the influence of MURRAY HUMPHREYS. This informant has reported that [REDACTED] was HUMPHREYS' choice and that it was HUMPHREYS who made the necessary maneuvers to insure [REDACTED] selection by the Regular Democratic Organization of the [REDACTED]. However, when [REDACTED] was recently dumped as the candidate of the Regular Democratic Organization [REDACTED] it was done so through the orders of SAM GIANCANA. In view of this, contact was made by SA [REDACTED] on several occasions telephonically in an attempt to arrange appointments with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] and BUDDY JACOBSON. On no occasion did the above three individuals return the calls placed to the headquarters of the Regular Democratic Organization of the First Ward.

However, on December 5, 1962, [REDACTED] was encountered by SAs [REDACTED] and MARSHALL E. BUTLAND in the chambers of the City Council, and was queried concerning his reasons for not returning the calls placed to him by SA [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] courteously replied that he did not return these calls because he had nothing to say to FBI agents and that in the event any questions were desired of him by the FBI, they should contact his attorney, [REDACTED].

FRANK FERRARO

Attention is directed to the information set out hereinabove under this caption and under the sub-caption [REDACTED] wherein it is reported that HUMPHREYS has met in the recent past with FRANK FERRARO in FERRARO's suite at the St. Clair Hotel, in Pete Fish's Restaurant, and in the Palmer House Hotel.

(b)(2)

(F)(7)(C)

[REDACTED] has identified FERRARO as being a close hoodlum associate of HUMPHREYS due to the fact that he also is a leader of organized crime in the Chicago area.

HY GODFREY I 11.

Information has been set out above under the sub-caption "[REDACTED]" indicating that HUMPHREYS has met in the recent past with GODFREY in Pete Fish's Restaurant and in the Palmer House Hotel.

[REDACTED] has identified HY GODFREY as being the appointment secretary, chauffeur, errand boy and bodyguard of MURRAY HUMPHREYS.

[REDACTED] It has previously been reported that Chicago and Los Angeles attorney [REDACTED] is an associate of MURRAY HUMPHREYS and that he represents HUMPHREYS and his Chicago hoodlum associates in certain dealings which those hoodlums have in Las Vegas hotels. Nevada I 11.

[REDACTED] advised that during the latter part of January 1963, MURRAY HUMPHREYS was in contact with [REDACTED] in Chicago. This informant was unable to furnish details concerning the nature of the contact, between HUMPHREYS and [REDACTED], except that it concerned the fact that JOHN "JAKE THE BARBER" FACTOR was at that time in Chicago. It appeared to the source of this information that [REDACTED] delivered to FACTOR a message from HUMPHREYS that HUMPHREYS desired to meet with FACTOR while FACTOR was in Chicago. However, this source was unable to advise that HUMPHREYS and FACTOR actually were in contact with each other during FACTOR's visit to Chicago.

This source advised that it was his understanding that the reason that HUMPHREYS desired to meet with FACTOR concerned the deal which FACTOR made with the ownership of the Star Dust Hotel in Las Vegas. However, the informant was unable to furnish any further details concerning the part which HUMPHREYS may have taken in this transaction. This source was also unable to furnish any details concerning the nature of whatever previous association may have existed between HUMPHREYS and FACTOR.

(F)(7)(C)

~~_____~~ ELL
Attention is drawn to the information set out hereinabove concerning the fact that ~~_____~~ was invited to join a group of Chicago hoodlums, including HUMPHREYS, in a restaurant at the Palmer House Hotel, lower arcade, on February 11, 1963. The source of this information, ~~_____~~ was clear that ~~_____~~ was not originally invited to attend this meeting of Chicago hoodlums, and that his presence in the group was coincidental and for a brief period of time. It did not appear to the source that he was an integral part of the subject of the hoodlums' conversation on that occasion.

It is noted that ~~_____~~ was observed by SAs ~~_____~~ and RUTLAND in the presence of HUMPHREYS and FERRARO in the lower arcade of the Palmer House Hotel in late 1962.

It is noted that information has previously been reported that ~~_____~~ who resides ~~_____~~ in Washington, D.C., is a close contact and associate of HUMPHREYS and that when HUMPHREYS visits Washington, D.C., he utilizes the services of ~~_____~~ to make appointments for him and to obtain reservations for him at the Woodner Hotel, where HUMPHREYS is known to stay.

On February 23, 1961, ~~_____~~ traveled from Washington, D.C., to the Miami, Florida, area. He left his train at the Hollywood, Florida, Railroad station, where he took a taxi to the Thunderbird Motel in Dade County, Florida. At no time during his visit to Miami, Florida, was ~~_____~~ observed in the presence of MURRAY HUMPHREYS, who was believed to be in Chicago at the time.

ELL
RALPH PIERCE

As is reported hereinabove, under the sub-caption "~~_____~~" MURRAY HUMPHREYS was observed during the middle of December in the company of RALPH PIERCE and several other individuals proceeding to a private dining room on the third floor of Pete Fish's Restaurant, 160 East Ontario. This informant, [REDACTED] was unable to furnish any information whatsoever concerning the nature of this meeting.

Attention is also invited to the information set out in the same sub-caption concerning the fact that PIERCE met with HUMPHREYS in a restaurant located in the lower arcade of the Palmer House Hotel on February 11, 1963.

[REDACTED] has identified RALPH PIERCE as being an extremely close associate of MURRAY HUMPHREYS due to the fact that they have been active together in the affairs of organized crime in the Chicago area, it being noted that PIERCE at one time was the chauffeur and bodyguard of HUMPHREYS, and that at the present time he is in charge of organized criminal activity on the South Side of Chicago.

V. ORGANIZATION OF THE AMERICAN-
ITALIAN WELFARE LEAGUE

[REDACTED] reported approximately two years ago that (b)(2) at that time MURRAY HUMPHREYS was upset concerning the tendencies of newspapers in the Chicago area to print what he considered libelous information concerning the personal lives and activities of hoodlums in the Chicago area.
At that time HUMPHREYS suggested to his associates, FRANK FERRARO, in particular, that contact should be made with legitimate professional people and businessmen of Italian ancestry in the Chicago area in order to set up an organization whose function it would be to sue for libel and/or slander whenever public comments were made either orally or in print which were of a derogatory nature concerning Italian-Americans and to sue for false arrest whenever Italian-Americans were arrested by law enforcement agencies in the Chicago area.

At this time HUMPHREYS indicated that he was not concerned that the libel suits or suits for false arrest be predicated on solid facts so as to insure collection of legal damages, but rather that such suits should be instituted even if the circumstances did not reflect a substantial basis for collection of damages, in order that newspapers, radio stations, television stations and law enforcement agencies would be constantly cognizant that they would be harassed by legal action whenever they put themselves in a position which would serve as the basis for any such suits.

[REDACTED] advised at that time that HUMPHREYS (b)(2) particularly indicated to his associates that contact should (b)(7)(c) be made with Chicago attorney [REDACTED] and with Chicago Alderman [REDACTED]. HUMPHREYS also advised that contact should be made with the Joint Civic Italian-American Committee in this regard. Y

[REDACTED] advised that information has come to his attention in January and February of 1963, that one [REDACTED] [REDACTED], a member of the family which owns and operates the [REDACTED] in the Chicago area, at the present time is actively interested in organizing a group which

(b)(7)(c)

tentatively is calling itself the "American-Italian Welfare League." [redacted] has advised that he is aware also that [redacted] has contacted Chicago hoodlum ROSS PRIO in regard to the organization of this league and in regard to the identity of persons who would be acceptable to PRIO as officers and as contributors of this organization. ✓

[redacted] advised that he also understands that [redacted] has received instructions, although possibly not directly, from Chicago hoodlum SAM GIANCINI, regarding the organization of this league and personalities to contact in reference to it.

[redacted] advised that [redacted] has been instructed to organize a group of American-Italian attorneys who would be available day or night to file for Federal injunctions to prohibit harassment of American-Italians and to file suits for false arrest against law enforcement agencies and for libel and slander against Chicago area newspapers, television and radio stations, whenever an American-Italian becomes involved in a situation which could possibly serve as the basis for such legal action.

[redacted] furnished the additional information that [redacted] intends the "American-Italian Welfare League" to be active politically for American-Italians in order to influence the selections of public officials in the Chicago area.

[redacted] advised that it is his understanding that under current policy given to [redacted] by PRIO, and possibly by GIANCINI, there is to be no indication whatsoever insofar as the public is concerned, that anyone other than legitimate American-Italians are interested in the league and no indication whatsoever that PRIO or GIANCINI or any of their hoodlum associates, is interested in the formation or organizational activity of this organization.

In regard to the "American-Italian Welfare League" it should be noted that [redacted] has furnished no information indicating that MORRIS HUMPHREYS has had anything to do with the organization of this group. Insofar as [redacted] is aware, HUMPHREYS has not been contacted by [redacted] and has furnished no suggestions as to the formation or activity of this league.

VII. RECENT HANG-OUTS OF MURRAY HUMPHREYS

Pete Fish's Restaurant
160 East Ontario,
Chicago, Illinois

(b)(7)(C)(D)

It is noted that information has previously been reported that MURRAY HUMPHREYS has used PETE FISH's Restaurant at 160 East Ontario, Chicago, for the past several years as a meeting place. Information has also been reported indicating that this restaurant was formerly known as Mike Fish's Restaurant, but that he left the management of this business to his brother, PETE, approximately two years ago and became interested in a restaurant in the Sovereign Hotel and at the corner of Rush and Ontario Streets. Both of these businesses failed.

[REDACTED]

As has been reported above under the caption "Associates," and the sub-captions "[REDACTED]," "FRANK FERRARO," "RALPH PIERCE," and "HY GODFREY," HUMPHREYS has been observed during the past two months on several occasions in Pete Fish's Restaurant.

[REDACTED]

St. Clair Hotel
162 East Ohio
Chicago, Illinois

As has previously been reported and as reported hereinabove under the caption "Associates," and the sub-captions "[REDACTED]," "FRANK FERRARO," "RALPH PIERCE," and "HY GODFREY," HUMPHREYS has been observed during recent months on several occasions in the lobby and on the 19th floor of the St. Clair Hotel. It is noted that FRANK FERRARO under an alias maintains Suite 19-E located on the 19th floor of the St. Clair Hotel, and that he uses this suite for meeting with his hoodlum associates. From information provided from other sources in the past, and previously reported, it is noted that HUMPHREYS has been using the St. Clair Hotel as a meeting place for many years, and that he feels that he enjoys the protection there of the ownership and management.

Palmer House Hotel
State and Monroe
Chicago, Illinois

(b)(7)(D)

As set out hereinabove under the caption "Associates" and the sub-captions "██████████", "FRANK FERRARO," "RALPH PIERCE," and "HY GODFREY," information has been received from ██████████ that HUMPHREYS met with his associates in a restaurant located in the lower arcade of the Palmer House Hotel on February 11, 1963. It is noted that in late 1962, HUMPHREYS was observed by SAs ██████████ and RUTLAND in the Town and Country Restaurant located in the lower arcade in the corridor thereof, and in the barbershop located in the lower arcade of the Palmer House. On that occasion, HUMPHREYS was meeting with FERRARO, GODFREY and ██████████, and RALPH PIERCE was also observed in the vicinity of the Palmer House on that date.

[REDACTED] ADVISED THAT DURING CONVERSATION BETWEEN [REDACTED] AND [REDACTED] REFERENCE WAS MADE TO SPECULATION THAT FROM QUESTIONS AND COMMENTS MADE BY GIANCANA TO [REDACTED] IT APPEARS THAT GIANCANA INTENDS TO REPLACE HUMPHREYS'S CLOSE ASSOCIATE, CONGRESSMAN ROLAND LIBONATI.

APPARENTLY GIANCANA IS PRESENTLY CONSIDERING ALDERMAN [REDACTED] AS LIBONATI'S REPLACEMENT AND POSSIBLY [REDACTED] AS A REPLACEMENT FOR [REDACTED]. FROM THE CONVERSATION IT IS APPARENT THAT [REDACTED] IS NOT IN FAVOR OF REPLACING LIBONATI WITH [REDACTED] INASMUCH AS HE DOES NOT CONSIDER [REDACTED] A GOOD ALDERMAN FOR THE "[REDACTED]" OBVIOUSLY [REDACTED] DOES NOT CONSIDER LIBONATI AS A GOOD CONGRESSMAN FOR THE ORGANIZATION BECAUSE "[REDACTED]" [REDACTED] AND [REDACTED] NOTE THAT LIBONATI WILL RUN IN THE PRELIMINARIES APRIL OF 1964 FOR RE - ELECTION AND APPARENTLY WILL BE REPLACED AT THAT TIME.

FROM THE CONVERSATION IT DOES NOT APPEAR THAT A HARD AND FAST DECISION HAS BEEN MADE BY GIANCANA AS TO LIBONATI, [REDACTED] OR [REDACTED] AT THIS TIME. EX-111

ASAC William Welte of the Chicago Office called this afternoon regarding the above-captioned top hoodlum who is under intensive investigation by our Chicago Office. Mr. Welte stated Humphreys is presently out of Chicago and arrangements have been effected today whereby the Chicago Office will be able to conduct a survey for possible misur coverage of Humphreys' residence in Chicago with complete security if they are able to act immediately. Mr. Welte, therefore, requested authority for such a survey, as well as installation of this misur coverage provided complete security is assured.

Murray Humphreys is one of the leading hoodlums in the United States and misur coverage of him would be most desirable and undoubtedly extremely productive. Humphreys is the one-time principal lieutenant in the Al Capone mob and currently is a leading figure and elder statesman of the present day underworld setup in Chicago. He has his residence in Marina City, Apartment 531, East Tower in Chicago.

ACTION:

In view of the importance of coverage on Humphreys and the fact that misur coverage can be arranged this afternoon with complete security, Mr. Welte was authorized to conduct this survey and installation of the misur coverage provided security was assured.

DAILY SUMMARY

(b)(2)(b)(7)(D)

Regarding information furnished by [REDACTED] indicating that HUMPHREYS traveled to Oklahoma for the marriage of his daughter during the middle of March, information has now been received from the Oklahoma City Office indicating that HUMPHREYS' daughter was married on 3/22/63 at St. John's Episcopal Church, Norman, Oklahoma, to one EDWARD MURPHY, son of a local florist. According to a newspaper article the bride's father, MORRIS L. HUMPHREYS, Chicago, Illinois, escorted her to the altar.

CHICAGO

AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS. Will continue to conduct and report investigation concerning the activities of MURRAY HUMPHREYS in consonance with Bureau letter to Chicago, dated November 27, 1957, entitled "Top Hoodlum Program; Anti-Racketeering" and in conformity with Bureau letter dated February 10, 1961, entitled "MURRAY HUMPHREYS; Anti-Racketeering", and Bureau letter to New York dated April 12, 1961, entitled "Criminal Intelligence Program."

ADMINISTRATIVE

(b)(7)(C) (D)
It is noted that as has been set out in my daily teletype summaries, information has been developed that HUMPHREYS as of the date of dictation of this report, is preparing to move into a new apartment in Marina City, an apartment building complex located just north of Chicago's Loop. However no information is set out in the details of this report to this effect for the reason that this office is most interested in keeping this information from other Governmental agencies in view of the fact that [REDACTED] has been established there. It is noted that investigation was conducted at Marina City in August of 1962, immediately after HUMPHREYS moved out of his apartment at 4200 North Marine Drive, in Chicago, due to a suspicion that he may eventually move there. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Photographs of HUMPHREYS and his wife were exhibited to [REDACTED] and he advised that no one resembling them had applied for an apartment at Marina City.

advised that when these two gentlemen arrived she immediately recognized one as being identical with a person represented by the photographs of HUMPHREYS which had been exhibited to her as set out above. The above man identified himself as [REDACTED] _____ had recognized HUMPHREYS as being the man in whom the FBI is interested.

Chicago Office concerning the above situation, [redacted] then telephonically contacted the [redacted] to change the listing for apartment 5131 from [REDACTED] to HUMPHREYS. On that date through arrangements perfected with [REDACTED] coverage of HUMPHREYS' apartment through [REDACTED] was effected.

Information received through [REDACTED] through the last date of the period of this report, April 9, 1963, has clearly indicated that HUMPHREYS has been in his apartment practically every day directing the installation of a burglar alarm, additional burglar-proof locks, bars across the windows, and appliances, cabinets, drapes, etc., however as of this date, the household goods of HUMPHREYS which are stored at the Majestic Warehouse in Chicago have not been moved into Marina City and HUMPHREYS has not commenced residence there. As of this date, HUMPHREYS continues his residence in Suite 2510 at the Carriage House Apartment Hotel, 215 East Chicago Avenue, Chicago. According to [REDACTED], HUMPHREYS is aware that SA [REDACTED] has been in contact with [REDACTED], but is not aware that [REDACTED] has informed the FBI concerning his presence or proposed presence at Marina City. According to this source, HUMPHREYS is under the belief that the FBI is not yet aware that he is moving to Marina City and since he has now installed a burglar alarm and special locks and bars, he feels most secure in his apartment.

For the above reasons, and in order to further protect [REDACTED] the Chicago Office does not feel that information concerning HUMPHREYS' apartment at Marina City should be jeopardized at this point by dissemination to other agencies.

during late February and early March, 1963. [REDACTED] advised that HUMPHREYS continues to make a practice of leaving the apartment hotel from a different exit every day and that he continues to be extremely conscious of the possibility of a surveillance inasmuch as he usually looks up and down the street very thoroughly, crosses the street, re-crosses the street, walks in one direction, and then comes back in the other direction and continually surveys his immediate surroundings. [REDACTED] advised that due to these activities of HUMPHREYS, it sometimes takes him 15 to 20 minutes to leave the immediate vicinity of the Carriage House Hotel. Photographs of [REDACTED] were exhibited to [REDACTED] on April 4, 1963, by SAs RALPH R. HILL and [REDACTED]. They advised that they have not observed anyone resembling [REDACTED] at the Carriage House Hotel.

DAILY SUMMARY

During the course of a surveillance yesterday afternoon, HUMPHREYS and Chicago top hoodlum, RALPH PIERCE, were observed leaving 188 West Randolph, Chicago, under the indication they had just left the law offices of [REDACTED]

As the Bureau is aware, [REDACTED] are close associates of HUMPHREYS and PIERCE and other top Chicago hoodlums, and are often used by these hoodlums as contact men and intermediators with public officials and politicians.

HUMPHREYS and PIERCE attempted to insure that they were not under surveillance and apparently satisfying themselves in this regard, entered the Newark Electronics Company in Chicago's Loop area. When they remained inside for approximately 20 minutes, entrance was made into the company by the surveilling agents and it was determined that they were in conversation with [REDACTED]

Contact was made this date with [REDACTED]. He advised that he has known PIERCE for approximately 30 years, inasmuch as [REDACTED] formerly frequented Colosimo's Restaurant when Big Jim COLOSIMO was the leader of organized crime in Chicago, and following that when Colosimo's was a headquarters of AL CAPONE and other leading Chicago hoodlums: [REDACTED] Y

[REDACTED] denied any close relationship with PIERCE or other Chicago hoodlums at this time, however. [REDACTED] advised he understands that HUMPHREYS and PIERCE came into his company and contacted the [REDACTED]. They exhibited a clipping from the Wall Street Journal concerning a "Spike-Mike" which is manufactured by the C. H. Stoelting Company of Chicago, and requested that [REDACTED] obtain a "Spike-Mike" for them. They also asked questions concerning the operation of this microphone. [REDACTED] advised that he obtained the opinion that HUMPHREYS and PIERCE also talked to [REDACTED] concerning the possibility of locating someone who can manufacture equipment which will "scramble" or "garble" their conversations so that their conversations can not be monitored by someone outside the room. [REDACTED] emphatically denied, however, that PIERCE and HUMPHREYS had anything but purely casual social conversation with him regarding friendships with mutual friends from "the old days at Colosimo's."

Contact with [REDACTED] determined that HUMPHREYS and PIERCE approached him with the above mentioned clipping from the Wall Street Journal and asked him to obtain it for them. [REDACTED] denied that he had any suspicion or knowledge concerning the identities of HUMPHREYS and PIERCE and claimed he felt they must be "private detectives." [REDACTED] advised he informed HUMPHREYS and PIERCE that he would make contact with Stoelting Company and attempt to obtain the "Spike-Mike" they were interested in. [REDACTED] emphatically denied any further conversation with HUMPHREYS and PIERCE or that they have dealt with HUMPHREYS and PIERCE on any past occasion concerning electronic equipment or any other matters. EQUIPMENT

The article exhibited by HUMPHREYS undoubtedly is an article which was contained in the Wall Street Journal in the Midwest Edition of 4/9/63, entitled "Electronic Advances Aid Snoopers Using Eavesdropping Devices." The following is quoted from this article: "If investigators can't gain access to a room to install listening devices they can use a 'Spike-Mike' which C. H. Stoelting Company of Chicago sells for $46.50. When driven into the outside wall of a room the 12 inch spike picks up conversations within the room and conducts them to listening equipment. The Federal Government is a major customer for eavesdropping devices, manufacturers say."

Information concerning the above mentioned microphone has been obtained by this office and it is noted that the Stoelting Company advertises stock number SA-126, a "contact microphone pickup" and advertises that "with this device it is possible to monitor a room without having access to it."

It is felt that HUMPHREYS and PIERCE could have had one of two motives in mind in attempting to acquire the above microphone. It is extremely possible that HUMPHREYS desires to use this microphone from the interior of his new apartment at Marina City in order to discover for himself the identity of the occupants of the two apartments adjoining his for the purpose of determining whether they are law enforcement officers. It is also possible that HUMPHREYS and PIERCE desire to obtain this microphone in order to continue conduct experiments with it to determine how it can be "jammed" to prevent monitoring by law enforcement agencies. In this regard, it should be noted that information was obtained approximately four years ago from [REDACTED] that HUMPHREYS had installed his own microphone in a suite at the St. Clair Hotel and had experimented with this microphone in order to determine how to prevent law enforcement agencies from monitoring his conversations. With this in mind, questions were asked of both [REDACTED] concerning any previous dealings they may have had with HUMPHREYS and/or PIERCE concerning any purchase by them of electronic equipment. As is noted above, both steadfastly denied any previous business with HUMPHREYS, PIERCE, or any other known associate.

Arrangements have been made with [REDACTED] in order that they will advise this office immediately in the event HUMPHREYS and PIERCE come back to Newark Company in the future as they are expected to do in order to determine whether [REDACTED] is able to obtain the "Spike-Mike" for them.

CG 92-348

(b)(7)(C)

Close contact will be maintained, not only with [REDACTED] but with [REDACTED] and other sources which might (b)(2) be expected to provide information pertinent to the above (b)(7)(D) situation.

Re your airtel 4/24/63.

In view of the commitment apparently made to [REDACTED], which was done without consultation with the Bureau, it appears that the proposed meeting of several Agents of your office with Chicago Alderman Mike Fiorito should be handled at your discretion in light of facts available to you.

In the event such a meeting does take place, it is your responsibility to insure that it is conducted under circumstances which will assure there is no possible embarrassment to the Bureau.

In the future in situations of this nature, before making any commitments you should, where indicated, obtain prior Bureau authority.

MURRAY L. HUMPHREYS, aka.
ANTI-RACKETEERINGDAILY SUMMARY

[REDACTED] advised that on Saturday, 4/27/63, MURRAY HUMPHREYS and his wife were present in their new Chicago apartment for approximately three hours. HUMPHREYS carefully explained to his wife the operation of the system whereby anyone who comes to his apartment door seeking entrance can be spoken with on the telephone in order that their identity can be ascertained prior to admitting them. HUMPHREYS also carefully explained the operation of the one way glass in the peephole insert in his apartment door, which allows him and his wife to visibly observe anyone who comes to their door seeking entry. In view of the fact that HUMPHREYS' wife is very short it is necessary for her to stand on a box in order to make use of this arrangement.

HUMPHREYS and his wife discussed the restaurant where they would have dinner on Saturday evening and decided on either The Cart or the Imperial House for the reason that HUMPHREYS desired to talk to whoever they were having dinner with without being overheard. When HUMPHREYS' wife suggested that they could [REDACTED], HUMPHREYS advised that neither he nor his wife would do any talking in their new apartment until they had the place thoroughly searched because, "I don't know what they have done up here. DAILY SUMMARY

(b)(7)(c)

The Chicago Police Department, in its investigation of the gangland slaying of IRVING VINE last week, has determined that VINE maintained a safe deposit box in the National Bank of Hyde Park on the South Side of Chicago. They have determined that VINE last entered his box on 4/29/63. The Homicide Division of the Chicago Police Department feels there is a possibility that VINE, knowing he was the subject of HUMPHREYS' wrath since he had apparently talked to the Internal Revenue Service concerning [REDACTED] may have placed something in his box indicating a motive for his killing.

For the above reason, the Chicago Police Department has made appropriate arrangements to enter the box of VINE on the afternoon of this date. They have made this known to this Office and have asked an Agent of this Office to be present when the box is opened.

In order to insure that anything of an investigative interest to this Office is immediately learned, an Agent of this Office will be present at the opening of this box strictly as an observer.

DAILY SUMMARY

██████████ advised that last week a (b)(2) (b)(7)(D) Chicago Tribune reporter, TOM POWERS, contacted Alderman D'ARCO concerning the identity of the individual who would fill the vacancy as Alderman of the First Ward. Source advised that D'ARCO furnished innocuous information.

Yesterday's edition of the "Chicago Sunday Tribune" contained an article written by POWERS captioned "News Strategy In First Ward: No Alderman," with the subcaption "Hope It Can Avert Wider FBI Probe." This article stated in part that First Ward Democrats and other party leaders have decided to leave the Ward aldermanic seat vacant and two reasons were cited:

"Party leaders do not want to re-open the scandal which forced attorney MICHAEL FIORITO to resign and criminal syndicate leaders who shared in the maneuvers that preceded the slating of FIORITO do not want to stimulate further Federal Bureau of Investigation investigation of their activities." This rather lengthy article traced the machinations involved at the First Ward situation and stated that the situation was developed through an investigation of the FBI of SAM GIANCANA.

DAILY SUMMARY

(H)(7)(C)

Attention is drawn to previous daily summaries wherein information was set out concerning the visit of HUMPHREYS and his associate, Chicago top hoodlum RALPH PIERCE, to the Newark Electronic Company. At that time, HUMPHREYS made inquiries concerning a "spike-mike" and also apparently made inquiry concerning the possibility of obtaining the services of an engineer who might be able to build electronic equipment for him.

[REDACTED] was contacted on 5/20/63. He confirmed the fact that he has been contacted by [REDACTED]. He advised that [REDACTED] informed him that he had been visited by "the big guy in the syndicate" who was interested in learning what "the little guys" were doing. He, therefore, advised that "the big guy" was interested in obtaining a "spike-mike" and tape recorder which would have a total value of approximately $400.00 for which "the big guy" would be willing to pay $600.00. [REDACTED] advised that

It is the feeling of the Chicago Office that it would be to the advantage of the Bureau to have [REDACTED] indicate to HUMPHREYS that he is willing to build for HUMPHREYS and his associates whatever electronic equipment they would be interested in. In this manner, the Bureau then would be aware of the interest of HUMPHREYS and his associates and other lengths which they are willing to go in the electronics field. [REDACTED] will be closely supervised in order that not only will this Office be constantly aware of what HUMPHREYS is interested in but also to insure that [REDACTED] can be called off in the event it is to the better interests of law enforcement.

 [redacted] advised that HUMPHREYS, in his usual attempt at being cunning, moved the bulk of his furniture into his new apartment at Marina City during the mid morning of Memorial Day, 5/30/63. ↓

This source advised that HUMPHREYS on 5/29/63 made arrangements so that his chauffeur-body guard, HY GODFREY, was stationed as a lookout on the first floor at Marina City and that two or three other lookouts were stationed elsewhere in the building, while HUMPHREYS and his associate, [redacted] stationed themselves in HUMPHREYS 51st floor apartment. HUMPHREYS commented to [redacted] that if SA [redacted] should get through all the guards on the lower floors and into HUMPHREYS' apartment, while HUMPHREYS was moving, in, he and [redacted] would "throw him over the balcony onto the ground floor," fifty-one floors below. It is felt that this was an attempt at humor on the part of HUMPHREYS, it being noted that, when HUMPHREYS moved from his apartment at 4200 North Marine Drive last August, SAs [redacted] and RUTLAND attempted to gain access to his apartment during the period of moving and interview HUMPHREYS. HUMPHREYS refused to allow entry to his apartment to the Agents and was much distressed when newspaper reporters and photographers and television camera crews arrived to photograph his move. Apparently HUMPHREYS took the above precautions in order to prevent a re-occurrence of this situation on this occasion not being aware that the Chicago Office had no such plans on this occasion in order to provide for the protection of [redacted]

DAILY SUMMARY

[REDACTED] advised that HY GODFREY arrived at HUMPHREYS apartment at 7:55 A.M. on 6/6/63. HUMPHREYS informed him that he wanted GODFREY to make a meet for him in the afternoon, on that date, with [REDACTED] apparently a reference to [REDACTED] a life-long associate of HUMPHREYS, who apparently will be a witness for the Government against HUMPHREYS in the income tax case against Mrs. HUMPHREYS. [REDACTED]

GODFREY then furnished HUMPHREYS a newspaper article, and the following conversation transpired:

HUMPHREYS: "What did you want to show me about this?"

GODFREY: "Just the whole thing. But here's something else - an article in the 'Herald.' It's about a FBI guy - some FBI Agent. This is the paper that [REDACTED] wanted about gambling."

Reference to the above, it is noted that [REDACTED] is [REDACTED] Chicago top hoodlum. In view of the fact there is no newspaper called the "Herald" in Chicago, it is apparent that GODFREY refers to an article about someone formerly an employee of the FBI which appeared in an out-of-town newspaper recently.

HUMPHREYS then told GODFREY to wait until he dressed because he wanted GODFREY to drive him "to the basement," possibly a reference to the lower arcade to the Palmer House Hotel which is a known meeting place of HUMPHREYS.

HUMPHREYS then indicated that he wanted to meet that date [REDACTED] "possibly a reference to [REDACTED] a well known Las Vegas, Los Angeles, and Chicago attorney. HUMPHREYS indicated that it is his pattern to meet with [REDACTED] early in the mornings.

GODFREY then left at 8:10 A.M. and HUMPHREYS followed at 8:15 A.M.

At 2:53 P.M. on 6/6/63 HY GODFREY and HUMPHREYS returned to HUMPHREYS apartment and HUMPHREYS advised GODFREY that he is to meet with RALPH PIERCE at 7:00 P.M. at Jenny's Restaurant on the far south side of Chicago, but that GODFREY is to contact Chicago top hoodlum [REDACTED] KRUSE and instruct KRUSE to meet him at 6:15 P.M. in the lobby of the Knickerbocker Hotel on the near north side of Chicago, and that KRUSE and HUMPHREYS then drive to the south side to meet with PIERCE. It is noted that Jenny's Restaurant is a known meeting place of Chicago hoodlums in Chicago.

No information was obtained concerning the nature of the meetings which HUMPHREYS proposed for 6/6/63.

Although the Chicago Office is now in a position to know beforehand of the meeting places of HUMPHREYS due to his early morning contacts with HY GODFREY, which apparently are going to take place daily, this Office does not feel that these meetings should be covered, at least as of this time, in order to provide full protection for [REDACTED]. It is expected, however, that in the foreseeable future situations will arise which can be afforded coverage through the use of physical and photographic surveillances.

DAILY SUMMARY

██████████ advised that HUMPHREYS, who commenced moving into his new apartment on Memorial Day holiday did not finish his moving on that date and in his apparent belief that he would be less conspicuous to Chicago law enforcement agencies, completed his moving on Sunday afternoon June 2 last. This is a typical maneuver on the part of HUMPHREYS in order to keep himself from the detection of law enforcement agencies.

██████████ advised that HUMPHREYS spent the weekend in his apartment alone, his wife apparently remaining in their Key Biscayne, Florida, residence.

Saturday night HUMPHREYS dined at Pete Fish's Restaurant on the near North Side of Chicago, came home early very tired and went to bed well before midnight.

HUMPHREYS is using the same maid in his new apartment as he did prior to last August when he lived at 4200 North Marine Drive in Chicago.

At noon on Sunday HUMPHREYS was visited by a person whom he addressed as "[REDACTED]" but whose identity is not known to this office. "[REDACTED]" apparently is the decorator who directed the installation of cabinets, draperies, carpeting, appliances and so forth in HUMPHREYS' apartment. "[REDACTED]" is apparently acquainted with several Chicago top hoodlums, notably GIANCANA, [REDACTED] PIERCE and FERRARO. He and HUMPHREYS discussed the recent legislation which has been introduced in the Illinois General Assembly sponsored by the three leading local law enforcement officers of Cook County which would legalize wire tapping. HUMPHREYS, as would be expected, opposes passage of this legislation. In this regard he opined that "they tap your wires now anyway, but now they can't use what they get as evidence."

HUMPHREYS complained at some length concerning ill health and noted that at the present time he has to take it easy from time to time inasmuch as he has trouble "getting(his) breath."

HUMPHREYS then indicated to "[REDACTED]" that he is very careful to make sure that he does not spend any more money than he can justify according to the amount of money which he lists as his income on his current income tax returns. He indicated that for this reason "that's why I discussed your bill with you. I have to watch out that I don't go too far because I'd be in trouble if something comes up where I'd have to spend some money. It is actually tough with me because I am like what Paul (Chicago top hoodlum PAUL RICCA) says, if you got so much money you can't spend, what good is it. That's the truth. A guy like Mooney (Chicago top hoodlum SAM GIANCANA) he don't have to worry because he's got a business, but with me if they ask what I do for a living, I say none of your God damn business, G and all. I just put down so much money and that's all there is to it. I give the government 40, 45,000 a year. In 1948 I settled with them and had to give them a net worth. So I've got from then to 1963 to show how much I've got."

From the above, it is obvious that HUMPHREYS considers his situation very carefully in order not to make himself susceptible to a net worth and expenditure type investigations by IRS. It is obvious, however, from this conversation that HUMPHREYS is not aware of the theory of the Chicago Office of IRS that they have enough information which indicates that HUMPHREYS was financially in poor shape in 1959 when he made expenditures in the name of his wife in regard to their Key Biscayne, Florida residence to make 1959 a "starting point" for a net worth and expenditure case rather than 1948 when, as HUMPHREYS remarks above, he listed his assets under oath for IRS when settling his income tax fraud case for which he was sentenced to eighteen months in 1935.

[REDACTED] has given all indications that HUMPHREYS has now permanently moved into his new apartment and that his activities there will be covered henceforth through this source. (S) (X) (D)

DAILY SUMMARY

██████████ advised that shortly after 8:00 AM, as apparently will be customary, HY GODFREY arrived and learned from HUMPHREYS the proposed agenda of the latter for 6/4/63.

HUMPHREYS informed GODFREY that "We're going to 'downstairs' today. I have to go over to the tailor shop also."

From the above it is possible that the reference to "downstairs" is a reference to the Palmer House Hotel restaurants which are located in the lower arcade there, it being noted that HUMPHREYS has been observed with his cohorts in organized crime there. The tailor shop would probably refer to Celano's except that neither ██████████ or ██████████ indicated any pertinent activities whatsoever on 6/4/63.

HUMPHREYS still heeds the advice of his mythical "Joe the Plumber" in that immediately upon arising for the day, he turns on the radio. This tactic considerably hinders a reception of ██████████ but does not totally destroy its effectiveness.

Just before 10:00 AM in the morning [REDACTED] the colored maid of HUMPHREYS, arrived and it appears that she regularly cleans the apartment of HUMPHREYS on every Tuesday and Friday. HUMPHREYS gave her his instructions for the day and then left her in the apartment alone.

HUMPHREYS did not return to his apartment until 10:14 PM on 6/4/63, when he watched TV and retired at 11:55 PM. Obviously his wife has not yet joined him.

Re Bureau letter 5/23/63.

Although [REDACTED] was installed and activated as a source on February 11, 1963, there has been no activity of interest as of this date.

As the Bureau is aware, this installation was completed in view of the fact that information was received from [REDACTED] and confirmed by information obtained from [REDACTED] that officials of the First Ward, [REDACTED] in particular, had arranged for the rental of this office space in order to provide a secure meeting spot for them with hoodlums and other individuals whom they did not desire to transact business with in their own office space on the 23rd Floor of the same building. Contact has been maintained [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From the above it would therefore appear that although no activity has taken place in the office of interest as of this date, that this situation still potentially warrants such coverage inasmuch as [REDACTED] and other officials of the First Ward apparently will use this space in the future.

It is therefore recommended that this source be maintained for an additional ninety day period and such will be done UACB.

It is noted that neither HUMPHREYS or his wife as of the date of this letter has physically moved into the apartment and is for a reason it is clear that this source has not as yet produced any where near the extent of information which can be expected to be furnished when HUMPHREYS and his wife actually move into the apartment. From indications received to date, it appears that they will move into the apartment sometime during the early part of June, 1963.

18. Recommendation by Assistant Director:

(If this surveillance involves cryptanalysis, include statement that decrypted material is or is not sufficiently important to continue decrypting.)

This source covers the new apartment of Humphreys at Marina Towers East, Marina City, Chicago, Illinois. Humphreys, for a period of several weeks, has been in the process of setting up and establishing this new apartment and as a consequence, this source has reported limited information.

However, it has been ascertained that Humphreys, who is extremely security conscious, has employed individuals to thoroughly check the premises for listening devices, in addition to which he has installed a system of new locks and has also had a burgular alarm system placed in the apartment.

Humphreys is a nationally known notorious hoodlum who has been a leader of the Chicago underworld since the days of the Al Capone gang. He is extremely elusive and surveillance conscious. For the reasons mentioned, Chicago feels that this source has a substantial potential, when Humphreys has finally settled in his new apartment, to furnish a volume of pertinent information as to Chicago underworld happenings. In view of this, Chicago Office recommends and the Special Investigative Division concurs that this source be maintained for an additional period of ninety days.

3/28-30/63

HUMPHREYS again directed installation of appliances in his apartment.

4/2/63

HUMPHREYS commenced the installation of new locks directing the work of a locksmith who had been recommended for this reason by Chicago Top Hoodlum RALPH PIERCE.

4/4/63

HUMPHREYS discussed the installation of burglar alarms on his apartment door.

4/5/63

Chicago Top Hoodlum FRANK FERRARO was taken on a tour of HUMPHREYS' apartment by HUMPHREYS. HUMPHREYS informed FERRARO that SA [REDACTED] had conducted investigation to determine whether he was living at Marina City last fall but since HUMPHREYS was not there at the time [REDACTED] was advised that HUMPHREYS had not made application and was not living there. HUMPHREYS never indicated that he expected that his presence at Marina City was unknown to the FBI.

4/11/63

HUMPHREYS appeared with his wife and inspected the painting which was being done at that time.

4/17-18-19-21/63

HUMPHREYS again appeared in the apartment on these dates. On April 21, 1963, he discussed the alarm which has been installed there whereby anyone who comes to the apartment must ring the door bell and then talk to HUMPHREYS on a telephone system so that HUMPHREYS can insure as to their identity prior to allowing them inside. HUMPHREYS also discussed the fact that there is a peephole in the door with a one-way glass so that he can visually observe any visitor to his apartment but the visitor cannot see inside.

4/27/63

HUMPHREYS and his wife again inspected their apartment and indicated as to their favorite restaurants in the Chicago area.

DAILY SUMMARY

(H)(M)(C)

At 8:36 a.m. on June 7, 1963, HUMPHREYS' bodyguard and chauffeur HY GODFREY arrived as is his custom. GODFREY and HUMPHREYS discussed possible meeting places for the day and it was decided that GODFREY would meet HUMPHREYS in the lower arcade of the Drake Hotel at 11:20 a.m. GODFREY indicated that he intended to personally contact Chicago top hoodlum FRANK FERRARO before his meeting with HUMPHREYS and that he also intended to telephonically contact [REDACTED] possibly a reference to Chicago top hoodlum [REDACTED] prior to his meeting with FERRARO.

HUMPHREYS then instructed GODFREY to contact HUMPHREYS' former bodyguard and chauffeur [REDACTED] now a business agent of Local 593 of the Hotel and Restaurant Workers Union. He developed that HUMPHREYS wanted [REDACTED] to come to his new apartment to pick up his winter clothes and take them to the cleaners for storage during the summer.

HUMPHREYS then waited for his colored maid [REDACTED] to arrive. Shortly after she arrived, [REDACTED] arrived after which HUMPHREYS, apparently to keep his appointment with GODFREY at the Drake Hotel.

HUMPHREYS spent Friday evening and the entire weekend alone in his apartment. To date his wife has not yet arrived from their Florida residence.

DAILY SUMMARY

As it is customary HUMPHREYS' bodyguard and chauffeur HY GODFREY arrived at 8:45 AM on 6/10/63. According to [REDACTED] GODFREY brought with him some batteries and wire which he had been instructed to purchase by HUMPHREYS for use in rigging up his, HUMPHREYS, television set. Inasmuch as the wire was not what HUMPHREYS wanted HUMPHREYS ordered GODFREY to leave and return with the proper equipment, which GODFREY did.

HUMPHREYS then discussed the fact that approximately 3 weeks ago his close associate ERIC GLASSER had suffered a slight heart attack while assisting HUMPHREYS in readying his apartment for occupancy. It is noted that this information was supplied by [REDACTED] as it occurred. GLASSER is an electrical contractor in Oak Park, Illinois, who has been a close associate of HUMPHREYS since the days when he was a Prohibition Agent associated with ELIOT NESS and later a Deputy U.S. Marshal in Chicago.

It is noted that [REDACTED] furnished information concerning his association with HUMPHREYS approximately 4 years ago and that approximately 2 years ago [REDACTED] was interviewed in this regard but was very surly and uncooperative. He refused to acknowledge association or acquaintance with HUMPHREYS.

HUMPHREYS was then informed by GODFREY that his [REDACTED] wanted HUMPHREYS to contact her.

At this point the following conversation took place:

GODFREY: Listen I got a magazine which shows all the gadgets that are being used these days. I give it to FRANKIE and he's studying it.

HUMPHREYS: You give it to FRANKIE and he won't talk to nobody. He won't have nothin' to do with nobody. He's so stubborn.

GODFREY: He whispers to me now. He and [REDACTED]

GODFREY: They put a focus on you.

HUMPHREYS: Three blocks away? Yeah, I saw that. And you know what? If they can't hear your conversation, if they're too far away and they can take your picture that far away, they get a lip reader to identify your words.

GODFREY: Something else. They also are so that visibly you don't see nobody. They're on your ass, but they can be two miles away, two miles is their range.

HUMPHREYS: Listen, the best proof of all that is, you don't have to talk about anything else, when the two presidents met, they met in the woods and they kept walking around with their backs to everybody and Secret Service had everybody blocked. Why do you think I've been warning everybody these last few years. I know what they're doing, a brick house don't have to fall on me to know that they've got to have something going for them

CG 92-350 Sub Z

It is obvious from the above conversation that GODFREY and HUMPHREYS are concerned regarding electronic eavesdropping devices being utilized by government law enforcement agencies at the present time. Obviously GODFREY and HUMPHREYS have been reading about these devices in magazines and GODFREY has furnished to Chicago top hoodlum FRANK FERRARO a copy of the magazine containing such an article. HUMPHREYS reference to the fact that he has been "warning everybody these last few years" is in reference to the fact that HUMPHREYS, of all Chicago top hoodlums, has been the most cautious in taking steps to preclude such eavesdropping, it being noted that [REDACTED] noted that it was HUMPHREYS who was most circumspect in this regard.

██████████ advised that ██████████ the former bodyguard and chauffeur of HUMPHREYS, who is now a business agent of Local 593, of the Hotel and Restaurant Workers in Chicago, arrived at 8:17 a.m. HUMPHREYS explained to him that he had called him down on the morning of 6/11/63 in order to help HY GODFREY, who was expected momentarily, to carry a huge steel box from HUMPHREYS' apartment to GODFREY's car, which would be parked behind Marina City, the residence of HUMPHREYS.

Shortly thereafter, GODFREY arrived as expected. HUMPHREYS explained to GODFREY that "██████████ (ph) wants to see me," and that HUMPHREYS desired that GODFREY take him to ██████████ (ph). It is not known whether this reference to ██████████ (ph) is a reference to ██████████ who is known to be a friend of GODFREY.

At 8:25 a.m., both GODFREY and ██████████ left, apparently carrying the box. No indication was given as to the contents of the box.

██████████ advised that HY GODFREY arrived at the residence of MURRAY HUMPHREYS at 8:10 AM, 6/14/63. He was informed by HUMPHREYS that the Chicago hoodlums intended to meet that day at "██████████".

This reference to "██████████" is to a location which at this time is unknown to the Chicago Office.

██████████ received indications approximately two years ago that the Chicago hoodlums were at that time about to commence meeting at "██████████" but to this date the Chicago Office has been unable to locate this spot. However, the Chicago Office has some ideas in this regard and will make every effort to locate "██████████".

HUMPHREYS returned to his apartment at 2:35 PM on 6/14/63 with his associate, ██████████

██████████, which formerly was a meeting spot of HUMPHREYS. HUMPHREYS declined an invitation of ██████████ to cabaret on the evening of Saturday, 6/15/63, but HUMPHREYS advised him he never goes out on Saturday nights.

HUMPHREYS indicated to [REDACTED] he intended to make a brief outpatient visit to a hospital on Monday, 6/17/63 but did not indicate the hospital nor the reason for his visit.

On 6/15/63, HY GODFREY arrived at 8:38 AM. During his conversation with HUMPHREYS, HUMPHREYS instructed him to "raise my insurance policy" it being noted that GODFREY operates the Hyde Park Insurance Agency on the South Side of Chicago. In this regard HUMPHREYS made the following comment: "If somebody jumps off the balcony I don't want to get caught. I don't think anybody will but you never can tell. I wouldn't put it past that [REDACTED] to con somebody into coming up here and jumping off my balcony". Both HUMPHREYS and GODFREY had a large chuckle out of this comment it being noted that HUMPHREYS' balcony is 51 floors above the ground.

HUMPHREYS indicated he would spend the entire day of 6/16/63, Sunday, at home.

[REDACTED] advised that GODFREY arrived at HUMPHREYS' residence on 6/17/63 at 8:09 AM. GODFREY in a very excited voice indicated "There's a guy there watching. Right now. At the joint. I just came from there". HUMPHREYS asked "This guy is there now? What the hell is he doing there so early? Maybe they're following you". GODFREY then informed HUMPHREYS he had observed an individual who looked like a law enforcement officer on the Dearborn Street ramp leading to Marina City, apparently staked out in a surveillance of HUMPHREYS' new residence. HUMPHREYS replied to this that "I expected it sooner or later" and asked for a description of the individual of interest.

HUMPHREYS then advised that ERIC GLASSER had died and that he intended to attend the wake of GLASSER in Melrose Park, Illinois on the evening of 6/17/63. He told GODFREY he wanted GODFREY to take him there but that for security reasons he would take a cab to the west side of Chicago where he would meet GODFREY on a street corner to be driven the rest of the way by GODFREY.

(H)(7)(c)

GODFREY then informed HUMPHREYS that "we're gonna eat over at the spot" but gave no further identifying information concerning the location of "the spot". HUMPHREYS then asked GODFREY where he had parked and was happy to learn he had parked on Grand Avenue, a distance of approximately eight blocks from HUMPHREYS' apartment. In this regard HUMPHREYS commented: "Well, you know what I tell you. Always assume that the G is following you. Then you can't go wrong". In response to this GODFREY replied "I know. I do. They're cuties. But CURLY. I looked at that guy for five minutes. He knew I was watching him. He kept looking at me and I was looking right at him". HUMPHREYS then commented "What I do is I go up to them and talk to them. That's what I'll do if I see them. I used to do that to them all the time. Christ sake that drives them crazy."

HUMPHREYS then advised that "I have to see [redacted] and get a hold of [redacted] too". The reference to [redacted] is possibly a reference to [redacted] of the First Ward, however, [redacted] furnished no information on 6/17/63 indicating that [redacted] had met with HUMPHREYS and as a matter of fact, has not furnished any information indicating that [redacted] and HUMPHREYS met with each other on anywhere near a regular basis.

The reference to [redacted] is obviously a reference to [redacted] of the Teamsters Union, who is a life-long associate of HUMPHREYS and whom [redacted] has advised has been in frequent recent contact with HUMPHREYS for reasons unknown to this source.

As GODFREY left he remarked that "There's a lot of ways of getting out of here." HUMPHREYS agreed and commented "I'm not gonna worry about (obs) those guys. Anything I do ain't that important". GODFREY then commented "What they'll also do is stake out in different locations. They won't follow you. They know you're due there or something and they just set there. I'm gonna find out today if they're staked out at the spot and if so we'll just have to move. OK CURLY I'll go ahead. We'll work out something for this evening."

The latter obviously is a reference to HUMPHREYS' plans to attend the wake of GLASSER, it being noted that GLASSER is a former Deputy U.S. Marshal who until his death was in the electrical contracting business in Chicago and who is known by [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] to have been a long-time associate of HUMPHREYS. GLASSER was interviewed concerning his association with HUMPHREYS approximately two to three years ago and was very uncooperative and unfriendly. According to [REDACTED] he suffered a heart attack in HUMPHREYS' apartment approximately five weeks ago.

As GODFREY left HUMPHREYS again indicated he would take a cab and meet GODFREY "someplace out west but it doesn't matter that much. The Gs know about me knowing him." At that point GODFREY left and there was no further pertinent activity.

██████████ advised that HUMPHREYS' chauffeur and bodyguard, HY GODFREY, arrived at 8:24 a.m. on 6/20/63. GODFREY informed HUMPHREYS that an unknown individual whose name was not furnished to the source, wanted to see HUMPHREYS as early as possible. HUMPHREYS instructed GODFREY to make arrangements in order that he could confer with this individual immediately.

HY then advised HUMPHREYS that his associates, presumably ██████████ and FERRARO, "haven't made no arrangements for lunch," and HUMPHREYS then indicated that there would be no luncheon meeting between the hoodlums on 6/20/63.

GODFREY then advised that arrangements had been made to have lunch in the Cart Restaurant in the Loop area of Chicago during the luncheon hour of 6/21/63. He then advised HUMPHREYS that Chicago top hoodlum TONY ACCARDO would be downtown on Monday and that he wanted to be included in the luncheon meeting on that date.

HUMPHREY's grandson, ██████████, apparently arrived in town with HUMPHREYS' former wife, and is staying with HUMPHREYS in his new apartment. HUMPHREYS obviously is quite fond of his grandson, and took him to the circus on the evening of 6/21/63, after a big steak dinner.

HUMPHREYS received a telephone call on the morning of 6/20/63, during which apparently questions were asked of him concerning his background. The call apparently came from insurance man, it being noted that HUMPHREYS has recently instructed HY GODFREY to increase his household insurance including liability. Following the call, HUMPHREYS indicated that he was concerned that possibly the call was not from an insurance agency, but rather from a law enforcement officer. It is noted in this connection that HUMPHREYS is still of the opinion that his residence location remains unknown to law enforcement agencies in the Chicago area.

Information being received from a newly established confidential source on Murray Humphreys in Chicago has indicated that Humphreys is attempting to cover all eventualities with respect to Federal investigation of his activities.

The ridiculous length to which Humphreys goes is demonstrated by a recent conversation between Humphreys and his bodyguard Hy Godfrey. The latter is the operator of the Hyde Park Insurance Agency in Chicago's South Side. Humphreys instructed Godfrey to raise his insurance and indicated the reason he thought this advisable was to insure that he was sufficiently covered in the event somebody jumped off of the balcony of his apartment.

In clarifying his instructions to Godfrey, Humphreys said that he would not put it past Agents of the Chicago Office to "con" somebody into coming up to his apartment and jumping off the balcony.

It is to be noted that Humphreys' apartment is 51 floors from the ground level.

furnished information that HUMPHREYS spent two and a half months from March 1963 until Memorial Day, 5/30/63, decorating and furnishing his apartment at Marina City, 300 North State Street, Chicago, Illinois. On Memorial Day, 1963, HUMPHREYS moved the bulk of his furnishings into his apartment. It is noted that these furnishings were stored in the warehouse of the Majestic Warehouses, 5032 South Wabash, Chicago, Illinois. These goods have been stored in the Majestic Warehouses since August 1962, when HUMPHREYS moved from his old apartment at 4200 North Marine, Chicago.

No information has been set out in the body of this report concerning the fact that HUMPHREYS now is currently in residence in Marina City. The reason for this is to protect [REDACTED], which is furnishing daily information of a substantial benefit to this investigation. It is noted that BY GODFREY, chauffeur, bodyguard, appointment secretary and general errand boy of HUMPHREYS, customarily visits HUMPHREYS daily shortly after 8:00 a.m., in order to be advised by HUMPHREYS as to HUMPHREYS' plans for the day. HUMPHREYS generally advises GODFREY concerning the individuals he desires contacted in order that they might be advised of HUMPHREYS' desire to meet with them that date, and the place where HUMPHREYS desires the meet to take place. (b)(2) (b)(7)(D)

Information concerning the identity of these individuals and of the meeting places has been paraphrased and included in the body of this report. However, due to the sensitive nature, and to the information currently being furnished by [REDACTED], the Chicago Office does not feel that dissemination of information concerning the existence of HUMPHREYS' new apartment at Marina City should be disseminated to outside agencies at this time. It is noted that [REDACTED] has furnished information that HUMPHREYS is very secure in feeling that no government agency or local law enforcement agency is aware of his present whereabouts, and as a result, is much more verbose and open concerning his activities than would be the case in the event that he felt he was under surveillance and observation.

The Chicago Office will evaluate the situation at the time when preparation of the next report on HUMPHREYS commences, in order to determine whether at that time information concerning HUMPHREYS' apartment at Marina City would not jeopardize [REDACTED] in the event that it was disseminated to outside government agencies. In the meantime no contact will be made at Marina City with the management there to determine information on the background of HUMPHREYS which he furnished on his application for an apartment there, and no investigation will be conducted to verify HUMPHREYS' presence there. It is noted that [REDACTED]

(1)(7)(C)

[REDACTED], is believed to be an associate of HUMPHREYS, and any contact with him [REDACTED] would be relayed to HUMPHREYS with the result that he would be aware that the FBI is cognizant of his new residence.

Title: MURRAY L. HUMPHREYS

Character: ANTI-RACKETEERING

Synopsis:

HUMPHREYS gave up his lease on his suite at the Carriage House Apartments, 215 East Chicago Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, as of the first part of May 1963. He left no forwarding address.

[REDACTED] HUMPHREYS was not present there. 16 current associates of HUMPHREYS identified herein. These include hoodlums, subordinates, labor leaders, legitimate businessmen, and restaurant owners. On 4/18/63, HUMPHREYS and his associate, RALPH PIERCE, were observed entering the Newark Electronics Company, Chicago. Contact there determined that HUMPHREYS desired to make an arrangement to purchase a "spike mike," a contact microphone which can be driven into a wall, making it possible to monitor a room without having access to the room. [REDACTED] advised they informed HUMPHREYS that it was possible to buy a "spike mike" and made arrangements for him to do so, but that HUMPHREYS has not returned there since 4/18/63.

[REDACTED] interviewed 3/13/63, and advised that HUMPHREYS permanently reside in Key Biscayne, Florida, and that HUMPHREYS has been retired for some time. IRVING VINE, former husband of HUMPHREYS' present wife, murdered in gangland style on 5/5/63. Chicago Police advised that it is their understanding that VINE was possible prosecution witness against HUMPHREYS and his wife in income tax trial of Mrs. HUMPHREYS, which may be under investigation by IRS in Chicago. Chicago Police advised that they theorize that VINE may have been slain due to his cooperation with Government, and to prevent his being used as prosecution witness. Travel of HUMPHREYS to vicinity of Norman, Okla., during early April 1963, verified. Daughter of HUMPHREYS married local florist at that time. Four current hangeouts of HUMPHREYS identified. At present time, HUMPHREYS is exercising great caution not to make expenditures in excess of amount which he claims on Federal income tax returns, due to his fear of net worth and expenditure type investigation by IRS.

I. BACKGROUND AND PERSONAL HISTORY

Residences

Carriage House Apartments,
215-19 East Chicago Avenue,
Chicago, Illinois

[REDACTED] had been requested by SA [REDACTED] to advise SA [REDACTED] in the event that HUMPHREYS should move from his suite, 2510, in the Carriage House Apartments. HUMPHREYS apparently moved from the apartment hotel during the early part of June 1963. [REDACTED] advised that although he had hoped to be aware of such a move on the part of HUMPHREYS, he did not become cognizant of the move until contacted by SA [REDACTED] on the afternoon of June 11, 1963. [REDACTED] advised that he has no indication as to the present whereabouts or residence of HUMPHREYS.

[REDACTED] advised that he had no way of knowing that HUMPHREYS has moved from the Chicago House, although he has not seen HUMPHREYS there since the early part of June 1963. [REDACTED] advised that at no time did he receive any information that HUMPHREYS intended to move, or that he was causing his household goods to be moved, and opined that HUMPHREYS must have done this at night. [REDACTED] advised that he has no idea as to the present whereabouts or residence of HUMPHREYS.

210 Harbor Drive,
Key Biscayne, Florida

[REDACTED] was unable to furnish any information concerning the whereabouts of HUMPHREYS during the latter part of April or the early part of May, 1963.

[REDACTED] has advised that although he frequently obtains information indicating that HUMPHREYS has been in Chicago almost continuously for the past two months or so, he has received no information indicating that Mrs. HUMPHREYS has been in Chicago since late April 1963.

II. ASSOCIATES

[REDACTED] has advised that MURRAY HUMPHREYS has been in at least occasional contact with his close associate, [REDACTED] during the months of May and June 1963.

[REDACTED] has identified [REDACTED] as being a very close associate of HUMPHREYS in organized crime in Chicago. This informant has identified [REDACTED] as being one of the top leaders of organized crime in Chicago, who constantly meets with HUMPHREYS in order to discuss mutual problems of organized crime.

(b)(7)(C), (b)(7)(D)

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] has identified [REDACTED] as being a bodyguard, chauffeur, and appointment secretary for SAM GIANCANA, the leader of organized criminals in the Chicago area.

FRANK FERRARO

[REDACTED] has advised that during the month of May and the early part of June 1963, MURRAY HUMPHREYS was in at least occasional contact with FRANK FERRARO.

[REDACTED] has identified FRANK FERRARO as being a leading member of organized criminals in the Chicago area, and as being a constant companion of MURRAY HUMPHREYS.

MIKE FISH

[REDACTED] has advised that possibly the restaurant most frequently visited by MURRAY HUMPHREYS during the late spring and early summer of 1963, is PETE FISH's restaurant, located at the corner of Ontario and St. Clair Streets in Chicago. This informant has advised that HUMPHREYS is a very close personal friend of MIKE FISH, one of the owners of PETE FISH's restaurant.

[REDACTED] has furnished information in the past indicating that for the past five years, at least, MURRAY HUMPHREYS has frequented Pete Fish's Restaurant, formerly called Mike Fish's Restaurant, and that HUMPHREYS is a close associate of MIKE FISH.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] has furnished information in the past indicating that until approximately three or four years ago,

(H)(7)(C)(D)

[REDACTED] was the bodyguard and chauffeur of MURRAY HUMPHREYS. This informant has advised that HUMPHREYS placed [REDACTED] in Local 593, the miscellaneous union of the hotel and restaurant workers union, through arrangements which HUMPHREYS made with [REDACTED] of that union.

[REDACTED] advised during May 1963 that MURRAY HUMPHREYS is still in occasional contact with his former chauffeur, [REDACTED], and that [REDACTED] occasionally runs errands for HUMPHREYS, as of the present time. This source is of the opinion that [REDACTED] continues to be a business agent of Local 593, and to reside on West Farwell, Avenue on the far north side of Chicago.

ERIC GLASSER

[REDACTED] advised that he has learned from another individual that MURRAY HUMPHREYS continues to be friendly with ERIC GLASSER, who operates the Emergency Electrical Company in Oak Park, Illinois. It is noted that [REDACTED] has furnished information in the past indicating that GLASSER has been a close associate of HUMPHREYS since the days when GLASSER was a prohibition agent associated with ELIOT NESS and later, when GLASSER was a deputy U.S. Marshal in Chicago.

It is noted that GLASSER was interviewed approximately two years ago concerning his association with HUMPHREYS, but declined to furnish any information whatsoever.

HY GODFREY

[REDACTED] has advised that MURRAY HUMPHREYS continues to meet at least occasionally with HY GODFREY, his bodyguard-chauffeur. [REDACTED] has advised that HUMPHREYS can be seen at least once a week having a luncheon meeting with GODFREY at various places in the Chicago area. This informant advised that these meetings are usually attended by other Chicago hoodlums, such as [REDACTED] FRANK FERRARO, and RALPH PIERCE.

(F)(7)(C)(D)

KATHERINE GRACE NEE HUMPHREYS

██████████ advised that during May 1963, MURRAY HUMPHREYS was observed by this informant on two occasions in the evening hours in the company of his sister, KATHERINE GRACE, who resides on the near north side of Chicago.

██████████ has advised that he has received information from an associate of his that MURRAY HUMPHREYS continues to be a close associate of ██████████ of the Superior Laundry and Linen Supply Company, on South Wabash Avenue, in Chicago.

██████████ has identified ██████████ as being a lifelong associate of HUMPHREYS, and has advised that ██████████ and HUMPHREYS have formerly shared financially in different businesses in the Chicago area, including the Superior Laundry and Linen Supply Company, but noted that HUMPHREYS sold his interest in this concern to ██████████ in approximately 1940.

██████████ advised during June 1963, that although he did not personally observe HUMPHREYS in the company of ██████████, he has reason to believe that HUMPHREYS has met on at least one recent occasion with ██████████

This informant identified ██████████ as being a prominent Chicago-██████████ attorney, who has offices at ██████████ in Chicago.

██████████ has furnished information in the past indicating that ██████████ has been a longtime associate of MURRAY HUMPHREYS, and that HUMPHREYS has done business with ██████████ in regard to financial interests of HUMPHREYS and his hoodlum associates in Chicago in various Las Vegas hotels and gambling casinos.

LES KRUSE

██████████ advised that MURRAY HUMPHREYS was observed in the company of RALPH PIERCE and LES KRUSE, at Jenny's Restaurant at 90th and Stony Island Avenue, during early June 1963.

CG 92-348

[REDACTED] has identified KRUSE and PIERCE as being close associates of HUMPHREYS in the affairs of organized crime in the Chicago area.

[REDACTED] advised that during the latter part of May, 1963, MURRAY HUMPHREYS was observed in the company of [REDACTED] at Pete Fish's Restaurant, Ontario, and St. Clair Streets, in Chicago.

[REDACTED] has identified [REDACTED] as being a close associate of Chicago hoodlums [REDACTED] and EDDY VOGEL, in that [REDACTED] is a bodyguard and chauffeur for these hoodlums.

[REDACTED] advised that information has recently come to his attention that during the early part of June 1963, MURRAY HUMPHREYS made an attempt to contact [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] of the Teamsters Union, and official of Local 710 of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, in Chicago. [REDACTED] advised that he was unable to furnish any information indicating that a meeting between HUMPHREYS and [REDACTED] was in fact consummated, or to furnish any information concerning the nature of the proposed meeting on the part of these two individuals.

[REDACTED] has identified [REDACTED] of the Teamsters Union as being practically a lifelong associate of HUMPHREYS.

RALPH PIERCE

[REDACTED] advised that MURRAY HUMPHREYS was observed in the company of RALPH PIERCE and LES KRUSE in Jenny's Restaurant, located at 90th Street and Stony Island Avenue on the far south side of Chicago, during the early part of June, 1963. (b)(7)(C)

CG 92-348

[REDACTED] has identified PIERCE and KRUSE as being close associates in the affairs of organized crime, of MURRAY HUMPHREYS.

[REDACTED] advised that he observed MURRAY HUMPHREYS in the presence of [REDACTED] on two evenings in the early summer and late spring of 1963, in restaurants in the Chicago area.

[REDACTED] has identified [REDACTED] as being a long-time associate of HUMPHREYS. This informant has identified [REDACTED] as being [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] in Chicago.

Indications were received from this informant that HUMPHREYS possibly had a financial interest in the Cameo Bar, and that it was a frequent hangout of HUMPHREYS.

FRANK "BUSTER" WORTMAN

[REDACTED] advised that he personally observed MURRAY HUMPHREYS in the company of an individual whom he believed possibly to be identical with FRANK "BUSTER" WORTMAN, a St. Louis and southern Illinois hoodlum. This informant advised that HUMPHREYS was with the individual whom he believes was possibly WORTMAN on the evening of May 15, 1963, in a Chicago area restaurant.

III. ATTEMPT OF HUMPHREYS TO PURCHASE ELECTRONIC EAVESDROPPING DEVICE

On the afternoon of April 18, 1963, SAs RALPH R. HILL, Jr., and MARSHALL E. RUTLAND, Jr., observed MURRAY HUMPHREYS and his associate, RALPH PIERCE, above, leaving the Randolph Street entrance of the building located at 138 West Randolph, Chicago, Illinois. HUMPHREYS and PIERCE attempted to insure that they were not under surveillance, and after apparently satisfying themselves in this regard, were observed by SAs HILL and RUTLAND to enter the Newark Electronics Company on West Madison Street, in the Loop area of Chicago. After they had remained inside for approximately twenty minutes, SAs HILL and RUTLAND entered the Newark Electronics Company and visually observed that HUMPHREYS and PIERCE were in conversation with [REDACTED] the Newark Electronics Company. [REDACTED]

CG 92-348

Following the departure of HUMPHREYS and PIERCE, SAs HILL and RUTLAND contacted [REDACTED].

He advised that he has known PIERCE for approximately thirty years, inasmuch as [REDACTED] formerly frequented COLOSIMO's Restaurant when BIG JIM COLOSIMO was the leader of organized crime in Chicago, and following that, when COLOSIMO's was the headquarters of AL CAPONE and other leading Chicago hoodlums. [REDACTED] advised SAs HILL and RUTLAND that PIERCE and HUMPHREYS had no particular business with him, and that most of the conversation was social, in that HUMPHREYS and PIERCE inquired concerning the health of [REDACTED], who, in fact, has been deceased for several years.

On the morning of April 19, 1963, recontact was made with [REDACTED] by SAs [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] reiterated the information which he had furnished SAs HILL and RUTLAND concerning his original acquaintance with PIERCE, and added that he had become particularly well acquainted with PIERCE, years ago. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] denied any close relationship with PIERCE, or any other Chicago hoodlum at this time. He stated that he now understands that when HUMPHREYS and PIERCE came into the Newark Electronics Company on the afternoon of April 18, 1963, they contacted [REDACTED]

(b)(7)(C)

[REDACTED] a clipping from the "Wall Street Journal" concerning a "spike mike" which is manufactured by the C.H. Steelting Company of Chicago, and requested that NATE PONCHER obtain a "spike mike" for them. They also asked questions concerning the operation of this microphone.

[REDACTED] also advised that he obtained the opinion from talking to [REDACTED] concerning this situation that HUMPHREYS and PIERCE also talked to [REDACTED] concerning the possibility of locating someone who can manufacture equipment which will "scramble" or "jarble" their conversations so that these conversations cannot be monitored by someone outside the room.

Contact was then made with [REDACTED] advised that HUMPHREYS and PIERCE approached him with the above mentioned clipping from the "Wall Street Journal," and asked him to obtain the "spike mike" for them. [REDACTED] on this occasion denied that he had any suspicion or knowledge concerning the identity of HUMPHREYS or PIERCE, and claimed that he felt that they must be "private detectives." [REDACTED] advised that he informed HUMPHREYS and PIERCE that he would make contact with the Steelting Company and attempt to obtain the "spike mike" they were interested in.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] emphatically denied that they have ever dealt with HUMPHREYS or PIERCE on any past occasion concerning electronic equipment or any other matters.

The article exhibited by HUMPHREYS undoubtedly is an article which was contained in the "Wall Street Journal" in the Midwest Edition of April 9, 1963, entitled "Electronic Advances Aid Snoopers Using Eavesdropping Devices."

The following is quoted from this article: "If investigators can't gain access to a room to install a listening device, they can use a 'spike mike' which C. H. Steelting Company of Chicago sells for $46.59. When driven into the outside wall of a room, the 12-inch spike picks up conversations within the room and conducts them to listening equipment... The Federal Government is a major customer for eavesdropping devices, manufacturers say."

On May 20, 1963, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was interviewed by SAs and RUTLAND. He confirmed the fact that he had been contacted by [REDACTED]

He advised that [REDACTED] informed him that [REDACTED] had been visited by "the big guy in the syndicate," who is interested in learning what "the little guys" were doing. He, therefore, advised that "the big guy" was interested in obtaining a "spike mike" and tape recorder, which would have a total value of approximately $400, for which "the big guy" would be willing to pay $600.

[REDACTED] advised that [REDACTED] also indicated to him that "the big guy" would like to meet with him and discuss certain things. [REDACTED]

IV. INTERVIEW OF [REDACTED]

Date March 19, 19631.

[REDACTED] was interviewed at her residence, [REDACTED] (F)(b)(c)

[REDACTED] Asked if MURRAY HUMPHREYS was now retired as current news stories suggested, she replied that Mr. HUMPHREYS had been retired for some time.

[REDACTED]

She was furnished the name and office telephone number of Special Agent [REDACTED] and was requested to have HUMPHREYS contact [REDACTED] on his return. She stated that she would deliver the message, but could not guarantee that [REDACTED] would contact the FBI.

V. MURDER OF IRVING VINE, FORMER HUSBAND OF
MRS. HUMPHREYS

The following article appeared in the Five-Star Final Turf Edition of the "Chicago Sun-Times" on May 7, 1963, entitled "Ex-Mate of Mobster's Wife Found Slain in Hotel Here," which article is quoted below, in part:

"The ex-husband of Murray (The Camel) Humphrey's present wife was found beaten and dead Monday in his suite at Del Prado Hotel, 5307 S. Hyde Park.

"Medical examiners said the victim, Irving Vine, 58, a bookmaker, died of suffocation caused by strips of adhesive tape plastered over his lips and nostrils.

"Homicide detectives began checking on whether Vine had given income tax information against Humphreys, 63, ranked high in the organized crime syndicate.

"Living in Florida

"Humphreys has been living with his wife, Mrs. Betty Jeanne Niebert Humphreys, 38, the former Mrs. Vine, in a $200,000 mansion at 210 Harbor, Key Biscayne, Fla.

"Internal Revenue Service agents have been attempting to build a net worth case against him, based on the ground that he never reported enough income to have paid for the estate.

"The property is in Betty Jeanne's name. She is a former Chicago dice girl who was married to Vine from 1946 to 1952.

"Police said Vine was an associate of Edward (Dutch) Vogel, 67, the organized mob's vice president in charge of pinball machines and juke boxes, and of Vogel's 'heavy man,' Nathan (Butch) Ladon, a 250-pound 6-footer.

"Linked to Alex

"Vine also had been connected with Gus (Slim) Alex, 47, mob gambling boss, homicide detectives said.

"After being divorced from Betty Jeanne, Vine shared an apartment with Laden at 5100 S. Cornell, police records showed. Vine had been arrested as a bookmaker twice in Chicago and once in Cicero.

"The dead man's room apparently had been ransacked, investigators said. Strips of 1½-inch adhesive tape had been used to bind his wrists and ankles, and to gag him.

"A maid, Rose Mitchell, of 1536 E. 68th, told police the door of Vine's fifth-floor room was closed when she passed it about 8 a.m.

'Door Ajar Later

"It was ajar when she came by again at 9:45 a.m., Miss Mitchell said, and she found Vine dead. Sheets had been stripped from the bed and used to cover the body.

"In the room were a racing scratch sheet and slips of paper bearing the names of 15 horses.

"He took a pretty good beating before he died," said Comdr. Robert Harness of the Hyde Park District police. Vine probably was struck repeatedly with a blackjack or the butt of a small caliber revolver, other investigators said.

"A police theory was that two men had beaten Vine to make him talk about underworld matters.

"Denies Interest in Store

"Nathan Block, manager of the hotel, said Vine had told him he worked in a cigar store on 53d. The victim's cousin, Lester Goodman, 57, owns such a store at 1616 E. 53d.

Goodman denied that Vine had any interest in the store. He said, however, that Vine spent all Saturday afternoon with him in the shop, 'talking about things in general.'

The Kentucky Derby, accompanied by heavy betting, was run on Saturday, police pointed out. Goodman said Vine never had expressed any fears or worries to him.

Police said Humphreys, who once paid income taxes on $50,000 from a ransom kidnaping, has long been known as a 'fixer' for the crime syndicate.

In addition to the Florida home, Humphreys kept a six-room apartment at 4200 N. Marine.

Homicide detectives said they wanted to question Humphreys, his wife, Alex, Vogel and Ladon. The connection of Alex and Vogel was disclosed after they made almost daily telephone calls to the South Side apartment shared by Vine and Ladon, it was revealed.

[redacted] and [redacted] Homicide Unit, Chicago Police Department, advised SA [redacted] on several occasions during May 1963 that they were assigned the investigation of the murder of IBVIN VINE, above. They advised that they had made contact with Internal Revenue in Chicago and with the U.S. Attorney's Office in Chicago, in order to learn whether VINE was actually a prospective prosecution witness for Internal Revenue in Chicago.

[redacted] and [redacted] advised that they were not definitely advised by IRS and by the U.S. Attorney's Office in Chicago that VINE had cooperated with Internal Revenue, or that he was a prospective witness, but that from their conversations with these authorities, they are of the opinion that such is the case.

[redacted] and [redacted] advised that they feel that VINE was murdered on behalf and under the instructions of HUMPHREYS, due to the fact that he was a prospective witness for IRS. They advised, further, that they feel that it is possible that the motive for killing VINE was not only in retribution for whatever cooperation he may have extended Agents of the Internal Revenue Service, but also in order to serve the purpose of enabling Mrs. HUMPHREYS to say that she received money which was the basis for her expenditures during the late 1950's, from VINE, who might be alleged to have been a big bookmaker in Chicago, and therefore, a wealthy man. They opined that Mrs. HUMPHREYS may now be able to say that she received her money from VINE, rather than from HUMPHREYS. She will therefore be in a position where she can throw the blame, not on HUMPHREYS, but on VINE, now deceased. (b)(7)(c)

[redacted] and [redacted] advised that they have developed indications during their investigation that these were the motives for the killing of VINE, and also, that VINE was approached during the late winter of 1963 by HUMPHREYS or by somebody on behalf of HUMPHREYS and asked whether he would not testify that he furnished BETTY JEANNE HUMPHREYS money in the late 1950's, on the condition that in the event he had to go to jail for income tax evasion, he would be well taken care of financially by HUMPHREYS for the rest of his life. ↓

[redacted] and [redacted] advised that they understand that VINE declined this offer and was beaten by unknown hoodlums in January of 1963.

[redacted] and [redacted] furnished no information concerning the source of this information, nor did they give any information on which to evaluate the reliability of this information.

VI. TRAVEL

Norman, Oklahoma

[redacted] advised that MARY LUELLA BRADY, nee Humphreys, had recently married EDWARD MURPHY, son of a Norman, Oklahoma, Florist, on March 22, 1963, at St. John's Episcopal Church in Norman, Oklahoma. The March 28, 1963, (b)(7)(c)

CG 92-348

issue of the "Norman Transcript," contains an article concerning the BRADY-MURPHY wedding, and it reflects that the bride's father, MORRIS L. HUMPHREYS, Chicago, Illinois, escorted his daughter to the altar.

VII. ATTORNEY

[REDACTED] has previously identified [REDACTED] as being an attorney of HUMPHREYS who, during the income tax evasion trial of Chicago hoodlum TONY ACCARDO, was in frequent contact with HUMPHREYS.

VII. HANG-OUTS

Jenny's Restaurant,
99th Street and Stony Island Avenue
Chicago, Illinois

[REDACTED] has furnished information that HUMPHREYS was observed on an evening in early June 1963, at Jenny's Restaurant in the company of his associates, RALPH PIERCE and LES KRUSE, above.

It is noted that Jenny's Restaurant is a luxurious restaurant located on the far south side of Chicago operated by one [REDACTED].

Pete Fish's Restaurant

[REDACTED] has furnished information that during the late spring and early summer of 1963, MURRAY HUMPHREYS frequently was observed during the evening hours at Pete Fish's

CG 92-348

Restaurant, Ontario and St. Clair Streets, Chicago, Illinois. This informant advised that it is his opinion that MURRAY HUMPHREYS spent more time at Pete Fish's Restaurant than at any other eatery in the Chicago area.

Restaurants on Lower Arcade,
Palmer House Hotel,
Chicago, Illinois

[REDACTED] advised that he has received information which indicates to him that HUMPHREYS meets his associates in the affairs of organized crime in the restaurants such as the Town and Country, which are located on the lower level of the Palmer House Hotel, in Chicago.

Randolph Towers, 188 West
Randolph, Chicago, Illinois

SAs RALPH B. HILL, Jr., and MARSHALL E. RUTLAND, Jr., observed MURRAY HUMPHREYS in the company of RALPH PIERCE, emerging from the Randolph entrance of the Randolph Towers office building located at 188 West Randolph in Chicago. Neither SA HILL nor SA RUTLAND was able to advise whether PIERCE and HUMPHREYS had been in the law offices of Gleber & Brodtkin, or whether they had visited Postl's Health Club, located there, or whether they had visited the offices of [REDACTED] located at 188 West Randolph.

[REDACTED] has advised that [REDACTED] is a close associate of HUMPHREYS, as are [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] and that several Chicago hoodlums, such as [REDACTED] and EDDIE VOGEL, frequent Postl's Health Club.

X. CONCERN BY HUMPHREYS NOT TO EXPEND MORE MONEY THAN HE CAN JUSTIFY ON BASIS OF MONEY HE REPORTS ON CURRENT INCOME TAX RETURNS

(b)(7)(D)

██████████ has advised that he has learned from an associate of HUMPHREYS that HUMPHREYS has cautioned his associates in organized crime to take his example, wherein he is extremely cautious to make sure that he does not expend more money than he can justify on the basis of what monies he claims on his current income tax returns. ██████████ advised that this associate has informed him that HUMPHREYS is very cautious before making any expenditures of any substantial form of money to project his income over the entire year in order to make sure that he does not spend more money than what an ordinary man could be expected to expend, based on the amount of money which is reported by HUMPHREYS on his income tax returns. In this regard, ██████████ has advised that HUMPHREYS feels that he is in no position to be prosecuted by Federal authorities for any violation of any Federal laws, and that the only possible way for the Federal government to prosecute him successfully will be on the basis of an income tax violation. This informant advised, however, that HUMPHREYS' associate has informed him that HUMPHREYS has been so cautious in this regard, particularly in the recent years, that he feels that he is immune even from this type of prosecution and investigation.

DAILY SUMMARY

HUMPHREYS' bodyguard and chauffeur, HY GODFREY, arrived at HUMPHREYS' residence at 8:24 a.m. on 6/21/63. He informed HUMPHREYS that he was having extreme pain the the lower region of his back.

GODFREY and HUMPHREYS then discussed the fact that HUMPHREYS had received a telephone call from an individual believed to be an insurance agent as set out in myairtel of 6/21/63. GODFREY advised that he had checked concerning the identity of this individual and determined that "99 out of 100" the individual who had contacted HUMPHREYS worked for an underwriting firm and was quizzing HUMPHREYS in regard to his application for increased coverage on his household policy.

HUMPHREYS then informed GODFREY that he had to see Chicago top hoodlum FRANK FERRARO that day and GODFREY advised that a meeting had been set up at the Cart Restaurant. SA [REDACTED] conducted a surveillance of this meeting and determined that present were Chicago top hoodlums HUMPHREYS, PIERCE and FERRARO along with GODFREY.

HUMPHREYS then advised GODFREY as follows:

"Now listen. I got this from a good source. All lawyers offices are bugged. Any place they see you meet, they try to bug you. So you be sure and let our guys know that. Not outsiders. Our own guys. That's what they're doing. So we have to get that to the guys today, see? You tell them. Then, I got word that my taxes were all straightened up, that they can't get anything. But I don't know how good the information is".

From the above it would appear that HUMPHREYS has received information from an unknown source that law enforcement agencies are attempting to obtain microphone coverage of their meeting places. Apparently from the same source he also received word that his income tax situation had been decided favorably to himself. Insofar as the Chicago Office is aware, the IRS in Chicago continues to feel that they have a very good chance of prosecuting against HUMPHREYS' wife for the expenditures which she made in 1959. (b)(7)(c)

HUMPHREYS then asked GODFREY, "Who can I get ahold of in New York for reservations?" HUMPHREYS then indicated that he meant hotel reservations and that he had a connection at the Waldorf but that he would see [redacted] to see if he could get a reservation in a "new hotel, I think that new one is the Americana". It was not entirely clear whether HUMPHREYS intended to indicate whether he, himself, was going to New York or whether the reservations might be for his former wife and grandsons, who are visiting him in Chicago.

HUMPHREYS then informed GODFREY, "I got to find somebody to go over to [redacted] office and look for a bug there. If it's in the telephone we will just open the telephone and find it. In the carplace." GODFREY in response to this, commented, "Well, like you say, if you've got something important to say, walk out in the hall or go to the toilet." HUMPHREYS then commented, "If they've done it to lawyers, would be one of them. Another thing you have to watch out for though is if you report to the telephone company and let's the G they pull it out."

(b)(7)(c)

It is obvious that the above is a reference to Chicago tax attorney [redacted] who handles tax matters for all Chicago top hoodlums. Although this office has requested permission to conduct a survey to determine the feasibility of misur coverage in [redacted] office, no confidential coverage is in effect there at this time.

A-RJUNEDAILY SUMMARY

██████████ advised that as usual HY GODFREY appeared at the residence of HUMPHREYS at 8:00 a.m., 6/25/63. GODFREY informed HUMPHREYS that he had been contacted on the previous night, Monday, 6/24/63, by ██████████, the bodyguard and chauffeur of SAM GIANCANA, who requested GODFREY to meet with him on the previous evening in order to carry a message to HUMPHREYS.

██████████ was unable to furnish the complete conversation which then took place between GODFREY and HUMPHREYS but indicated that ██████████ had been instructed by GIANCANA to inform HUMPHREYS concerning the surveillance which had been placed on him by the FBI and which was, in effect, on Monday evening.

GODFREY informed HUMPHREYS that GIANCANA was making very certain that he did not "get out of line." GODFREY advised HUMPHREYS that ██████████ informed him that the FBI agents were going with GIANCANA every place he went and that they even had gone on the golf course with him Monday morning and afternoon. From what GODFREY said, it appeared that GIANCANA was making every effort not to create an incident.

HUMPHREYS then indicated that he was "worried about he can be guilty of by association could be a general conspiracy." From the above, it would appear that HUMPHREYS is concerned that the FBI might be attempting to develop information concerning GIANCANA's activities and associations in order to build evidence concerning a violation of the conspiracy statutes although he is not at all clear as to what exactly he has in mind. (H)(C)

HUMPHREYS instructed GODFREY to recontact [redacted] and have [redacted] meet him at 10:15 a.m. on 6/25/63 in the Drake Hotel in Chicago and that if they could not meet then, he would meet [redacted] at noon at the regular luncheon meeting place of HUMPHREYS, the exact location which at this time is not known to this office. HUMPHREYS and GODFREY then had a conversation concerning something which HUMPHREYS had assigned [redacted] to do but which [redacted] apparently did not desire to do. HUMPHREYS indicated to GODFREY that he wanted to meet with [redacted] in order to iron out this difficulty.

Daily Summary

██████████ advised that on 7/5/63 Chicago top hoodlum FRANK FERRARO arrived at the residence of HUMPHREYS. He told HUMPHREYS that HY GODFREY was waiting downstairs and he and HUMPHREYS immediately left HUMPHREYS' apartment. In view of the intention of FERRARO and HUMPHREYS to contact Chicago top hoodlums ANTHONY ACCARDO and PAUL RICCA on 7/5/63 as furnished in my daily airtel of 7/5/63, it is felt that HUMPHREYS and FERRARO were then on their way to contact ACCARDO and RICCA concerning the "terrible blunder" of Chicago top hoodlum SAMUEL GIANCANA in "oking" the interview of Chicago top hoodlum CHUCK ENGLISH by Agents of the FBI on 6/29 and 30/63.

On 7/6/63 ██████████ arrived at the apartment of HUMPHREYS early in the afternoon. It is noted that ██████████ served as the bodyguard and chauffeur of HUMPHREYS prior to HY GODFREY and that HUMPHREYS placed ██████████ in Local 593 of the Hotel and Restaurant Workers Union in Chicago as a business agent in order that ██████████ may work his way up into the leadership of this union as a contact of the Chicago hoodlums. HUMPHREYS indicated to ██████████ that he had called him due to the fact that GODFREY continues to suffer from his bad back.

██████████ took this occasion to discuss with HUMPHREYS the fact that he was desirous of receiving in his position as business agent with Local 593. HUMPHREYS indicated to [REDACTED] that Chicago top hoodlum [REDACTED] was now the contact man with [REDACTED], the President of Local 593 and that he had informed [REDACTED] concerning [REDACTED] desires.

DAILY SUMMARY

_____ recently advised that the former wife of HUMPHREYS and the grandson of HUMPHREYS recently visited HUMPHREYS in Chicago. During conversations between HUMPHREYS and his former wife it appears possible that HUMPHREYS and his former wife intend to visit Europe sometime in the future. It is not known whether their conversation indicates that this trip will be made in the early future but it does appear likely that they intend to go to Europe. At one point HUMPHREYS made the comment, "I keep ribbing LES about going over there with me because I figure he should know every place to go with his folks being over there." It would appear this is a reference to Chicago top hoodlum LES KRUSE.

At another point when HUMPHREYS was showing his former wife around his new apartment he talked about new silverware which he had gotten and stated, "When I got mad at her I sent out all her silver and everything and anything that was hers I sent to her". This appears to indicate that HUMPHREYS has had a disagreement with his present wife and that he is estranged from her at the present time. This would explain the reason why his present wife has not been in Chicago since HUMPHREYS moved into his new apartment.

DAILY SUMMARY

██████████ advised on 7/19/63 that HUMPHREYS instructed his close friend ██████████ to go to the Palmer House Hotel in Chicago this morning and through the Palmer House make arrangements at the Waldorf Hotel in New York City for him in the name of AL HUMPHREYS, 215 Chicago Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, for Monday, July 22, 1963. HUMPHREYS indicated that he wanted one room.

The New York Office is requested to institute a discreet surveillance of HUMPHREYS following his arrival at the Waldorf.

The Chicago Office will attempt to discreetly place HUMPHREYS on an airplane from Chicago to New York on Monday morning. In the event HUMPHREYS is observed leaving Chicago his flight and clothing will be furnished to the New York Office for assistance in their surveillance. In the event that Chicago is unable to observe HUMPHREYS leaving Chicago, New York is instructed to wait until Tuesday, 7/23/63, in order to make inquiries concerning HUMPHREYS at the Waldorf. Any inquiries made at that time should be most discreet in order that the source of this information be afforded appropriate security.

Enclosed herewith are three copies of two photographs of HUMPHREYS which are an excellent likeness of him as New York is aware. HUMPHREYS is a top hoodlum of the Chicago Office and additional photographs and a physical description appear in the Top Hoodlum Album.

"Now listen. I got this from a good source. All lawyers offices are bugged. Any place they see you meet, they try to bug you. So you be sure and let our guys know that. Not outsiders. Our own guys. That's what they're doing. So we have to get that to the guys today, see? You tell them. Then, I got word that my taxes were all straightened up, that they can't get anything. But I don't know how good the information is".

From the above it would appear that HUMPHREYS has received information from an unknown source that law enforcement agencies are attempting to obtain microphone coverage of their meeting places. Apparently from the same source he also received word that his income tax situation had been decided favorably to himself. Insofar as the Chicago Office is aware, the IRS in Chicago continues to feel that they have a very good chance of prosecuting against HUMPHREYS' wife for the expenditures which she made in 1959. (b)(7)(c)

HUMPHREYS then asked GODFREY, "Who can I get ahold of in New York for reservations?" HUMPHREYS then indicated that he meant hotel reservations and that he had a connection at the Waldorf but that he would see [redacted] to see if he could get a reservation in a "new hotel, I think that new one is the Americana". It was not entirely clear whether HUMPHREYS intended to indicate whether he, himself, was going to New York or whether the reservations might be for his former wife and grandsons, who are visiting him in Chicago.

HUMPHREYS then informed GODFREY, "I got to find somebody to go over to [redacted] office and look for a bug there. If it's in the telephone we will just open the telephone and find it. In the earplace." GODFREY in response to this, commented, "Well, like you say, if you've got something important to say, walk out in the hall or go to the toilet." HUMPHREYS then commented, "If they've done it to lawyers, would be one of them. Another thing you have to watch out for though is if you report to the telephone company and let the G they pull it out."

CG 92-348

(H)(C)

It is obvious that the above is a reference to Chicago tax attorney [REDACTED] who handles tax matters for all Chicago top hoodlums. Although this office has requested permission to conduct a survey to determine the feasibility of misur coverage in [REDACTED] office, no confidential coverage is in effect there at this time.

MURRAY L. HUMPHREYS, aka
A-RJUNEDAILY SUMMARY

██████████ advised that as usual HY GODFREY appeared at the residence of HUMPHREYS at 8:00 a.m., 6/25/63. GODFREY informed HUMPHREYS that he had been contacted on the previous night, Monday, 6/24/63, by ██████████, the bodyguard and chauffeur of SAM GIANCANA, who requested GODFREY to meet with him on the previous evening in order to carry a message to HUMPHREYS.

██████████ was unable to furnish the complete conversation which then took place between GODFREY and HUMPHREYS but indicated that ██████████ had been instructed by GIANCANA to inform HUMPHREYS concerning the surveillance which had been placed on him by the FBI and which was, in effect, on Monday evening.

GODFREY informed HUMPHREYS that GIANCANA was making very certain that he did not "get out of line." GODFREY advised HUMPHREYS that ██████████ informed him that the FBI agents were going with GIANCANA every place he went and that they even had gone on the golf course with him Monday morning and afternoon. From what GODFREY said, it appeared that GIANCANA was making every effort not to create an incident.

HUMPHREYS then indicated that he was "worried abouthe can be guilty of by association..... could be a general conspiracy." From the above, it would appear that HUMPHREYS is concerned that the FBI might be attempting to develop information concerning GIANCANA's activities and associations in order to build evidence concerning a violation of the conspiracy statutes although he is not at all clear as to what exactly he has in mind. (b)(7)(C)

HUMPHREYS instructed GODFREY to recontact [redacted] and have [redacted] meet him at 10:15 a.m. on 6/25/63 in the Drake Hotel in Chicago and that if they could not meet then, he would meet [redacted] at noon at the regular luncheon meeting place of HUMPHREYS, the exact location which at this time is not known to this office. HUMPHREYS and GODFREY then had a conversation concerning something which HUMPHREYS had assigned [redacted] to do but which [redacted] apparently did not desire to do. HUMPHREYS indicated to GODFREY that he wanted to meet with [redacted] in order to iron out this difficulty.

[REDACTED] has advised that he has learned of no activity on the part of HUMPHREYS since Tuesday, June 25, 1963. This source advised that this indicates that HUMPHREYS travelled to New York City as he previously indicated to this source he would and that possibly HUMPHREYS remains in New York at the present time.

The New York Office is requested to be alert for HUMPHREYS in New York although it is likely that he is there with his former wife and grandchild on a vacation trip.

Daily Summary

██████████ advised that on 7/5/63 Chicago top hoodlum FRANK FERRARO arrived at the residence of HUMPHREYS. He told HUMPHREYS that HY GODFREY was waiting downstairs and he and HUMPHREYS immediately left HUMPHREYS' apartment. In view of the intention of FERRARO and HUMPHREYS to contact Chicago top hoodlums ANTHONY ACCARDO and PAUL RICCA on 7/5/63 as furnished in my daily airtel of 7/5/63, it is felt that HUMPHREYS and FERRARO were then on their way to contact ACCARDO and RICCA concerning the "terrible blunder" of Chicago top hoodlum SAMUEL GIANCANA in "oking" the interview of Chicago top hoodlum CHUCK ENGLISH by Agents of the FBI on 6/29 and 30/63.

On 7/6/63 ██████████ arrived at the apartment of HUMPHREYS early in the afternoon. It is noted that ██████████ served as the bodyguard and chauffeur of HUMPHREYS prior to HY GODFREY and that HUMPHREYS placed ██████████ in Local 593 of the Hotel and Restaurant Workers Union in Chicago as a business agent in order that ██████████ may work his way up into the leadership of this union as a contact of the Chicago hoodlums. HUMPHREYS indicated to ██████████ that he had called him due to the fact that GODFREY continues to suffer from his bad back.

██████████ took this occasion to discuss with HUMPHREYS the fact that he was desirous of receiving a raise in his position as business agent with Local 593. HUMPHREYS indicated to [REDACTED] that Chicago top hoodlum [REDACTED] was now the contact man with [REDACTED], the President of Local 593 and that he had informed [REDACTED] concerning [REDACTED] desires.

During the course of the conversation HUMPHREYS indicated that he still contacts [REDACTED] who formerly was a leader of another local of the Hotel and Restaurant Workers Union prior to the exposure of his hoodlum connections by the Senate Rackets Committee. HUMPHREYS then furnished [REDACTED] with the code to be used when ringing HUMPHREYS' doorbell so that HUMPHREYS can be aware that it is [REDACTED] who is calling. HUMPHREYS advised [REDACTED] that he does not answer the door unless his visitor uses the code which he furnished to [REDACTED] _____ recently advised that the former wife of HUMPHREYS and the grandson of HUMPHREYS recently visited HUMPHREYS in Chicago. During conversations between HUMPHREYS and his former wife it appears possible that HUMPHREYS and his former wife intend to visit Europe sometime in the future. It is not known whether their conversation indicates that this trip will be made in the early future but it does appear likely that they intend to go to Europe. At one point HUMPHREYS made the comment, "I keep ribbing LES about going over there with me because I figure he should know every place to go with his folks being over there." It would appear this is a reference to Chicago top hoodlum LES KRUSE.

At another point when HUMPHREYS was showing his former wife around his new apartment he talked about new silverware which he had gotten and stated, "When I got mad at her I sent out all her silver and everything and anything that was hers I sent to her". This appears to indicate that HUMPHREYS has had a disagreement with his present wife and that he is estranged from her at the present time. This would explain the reason why his present wife has not been in Chicago since HUMPHREYS moved into his new apartment.

██████████ advised that HY GODFREY arrived at the apartment of HUMPHREYS at 7:29 a.m. this date. After a desultory conversation HUMPHREYS informed GODFREY that he wanted to meet with SAM GIANCANA some time today. He did not inform GODFREY as to the nature of his desire to meet with GIANCANA but did give an indication to the source that possibly FRANK FERRARO would also be present during the meeting.

The above information has been brought to the attention of the Agents conducting the surveillance of GIANCANA this date with instructions that they be alert for a meeting between HUMPHREYS and GIANCANA possibly including FERRARO.

DAILY SUMMARY

██████████ advised on 7/19/63 that HUMPHREYS instructed his close friend ██████████ to go to the Palmer House Hotel in Chicago this morning and through the Palmer House make arrangements at the Waldorf Hotel in New York City for him in the name of AL HUMPHREYS, 215 Chicago Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, for Monday, July 22, 1963. HUMPHREYS indicated that he wanted one room.

The New York Office is requested to institute a discreet surveillance of HUMPHREYS following his arrival at the Waldorf.

The Chicago Office will attempt to discreetly place HUMPHREYS on an airplane from Chicago to New York on Monday morning. In the event HUMPHREYS is observed leaving Chicago his flight and clothing will be furnished to the New York Office for assistance in their surveillance. In the event that Chicago is unable to observe HUMPHREYS leaving Chicago, New York is instructed to wait until Tuesday, 7/23/63, in order to make inquiries concerning HUMPHREYS at the Waldorf. Any inquiries made at that time should be most discreet in order that the source of this information be afforded appropriate security.

Enclosed herewith are three copies of two photographs of HUMPHREYS which are an excellent likeness of him as New York is aware HUMPHREYS is a top hoodlum of the Chicago Office and additional photographs and a physical description appear in the Top Hoodlum Album.

Murray Humphreys, the notorious Chicago hoodlum who has been in the underworld since the Capone days, arrived today in New York and will reside in room 1477, Waldorf Astoria Hotel, for eight days. He is thought to be en route to Europe.

The New York Office has advised that they can install with complete security a microphone surveillance covering Humphreys' room in the Waldorf, this surveillance [REDACTED] a cost of [REDACTED] per day.

Humphreys is a source of continuing interest to the Bureau and can reasonably be expected to meet with New York underworld members. This coverage, therefore, would be of great investigative interest to the Bureau.

ACTION:

In view of the opportunity present today to make this installation and in the light of the New York Office's guarantee of complete security, New York was authorized to proceed with this installation.

MURRAY L. HUMPHREYS, AKA. AR. DAILY SUMMARY.

██████████ ADVISED THAT HUMPHREYS CONFERRED WITH HIS BODY-GUARD AND CHAUFFEUR HY GODFREY CONCERNING HIS RECENT TRIP TO NEW YORK CITY. IT APPEARED THAT HUMPHREYS' PRIMARY INTEREST WAS SHOPPING FOR PAINTINGS FOR HIS NEW APARTMENT. HE MENTIONED THAT HE WENT TO "SPOTS DOWN ON SECOND AND THIRD AVENUE" WHERE HE HAD PREVIOUSLY PURCHASED PICTURES. HE ALSO MENTIONED THAT "SAM FROM PHILADELPHIA" JOINED HIM IN NEW YORK AND WENT SHOPPING WITH HIM. PHILADELPHIA REQUESTED TO FURNISH INFO AS TO "SAM'S" IDENTITY. HUMPHREYS AND GODFREY THEN MADE ARRANGEMENTS FOR MEETING JULY 29 LAST AT STALEY'S RESTAURANT IN CHICAGO WHERE DISCREET SURVEILLANCE OBSERVED HUMPHREYS MEETING WITH SEVEN OTHER CHICAGO TOP HOODLUMS, THEIR ATTORNEYS AND ASSOCIATES. DETAILS THIS MEETING FURNISHED IN ANOTHER COMMUNICATION.

AM COPY FURNISHED SACS NEW YORK AND PHILADELPHIA.
